

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They might develop better in case of emergencies, but they didn't know enough about them. They didn't know enough about, planned against the removal of German (Soviet) missiles from
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some people in Europe wanted more independence and also missiles.
4. Would the U.S. believe what the Soviet Union said?	Not the government, but the newspaper. There was a communist country.	The American public was suspicious and would not take as much notice of the Soviet

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new missiles.

What would be the main reason for this?

It might be that the Americans were really serious.

It would be because the government the Americans were against.

It would be that the Americans were not yet ready to do this.
