MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning Richard Colwell, Peter R. Webster, 2011-11-23 Summarizes the latest research on music learning focusing on the profession's empirical conceptual knowledge of how students gain competence in music at various ages in different contexts

MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning: Volume 1: Strategies Richard Colwell, Peter R. Webster, 2011-10-26 The MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning Volume 1 Strategies brings together the best and most current research on methods for music learning focusing squarely on the profession's empirical and conceptual knowledge of how students gain competence in music at various ages and in different contexts The collection of chapters written by the foremost figures active in the field takes a broad theoretical perspective on current critical areas of research including music development music listening and reading motivation and self-regulated learning in music music perception and movement The book's companion volume Applications builds an extensive and solid position of practice upon the frameworks and research presented here Throughout both volumes in this essential set focus is placed on the musical knowledge and musical skills needed to perform create understand reflect on enjoy value and respond to music A key point of emphasis rests on the relationship between music learning and finding meaning in music and as music technology plays an increasingly important role in learning today chapters move beyond exclusively formal classroom instruction into other forms of systematic learning and informal instruction Either individually or paired with its companion Volume 2 Applications this indispensable overview of this growing area of inquiry will appeal to students and scholars in Music Education as well as front-line music educators in the classroom

10th European Conference on Games Based Learning , Pedagogies for Later-Life Music Learning and Participation Andrea Creech, Colin Enright, 2025-07-01 This open access book presents evidence-based participant and facilitator perspectives on later-life music learning and participation The chapters explore the principles and practices that can facilitate and support meaningful music making in a range of non-formal later-life contexts highlighting consistent as well as context-specific pedagogical issues Case study examples are used to examine issues relating to pedagogy as improvisation the use of technology to support creativity and meaningful music experience facilitation of the use of music for creativity sense of belonging musical identities and musical development in later life and more The book concludes with an innovative and creative pedagogical model to support critical reflection on values frameworks and practices in later-life music learning and participation The book will be accessible and relevant for music researchers and educators music education students and community music leaders alike

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophical and Qualitative Assessment in Music Education David James Elliott, Marissa Silverman, Gary McPherson, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Philosophical and Qualitative Assessment in Music Education offers critical perspectives on a wide range of conceptual and practical issues in music education assessment and evaluation as these apply to music education in schools and community settings

Creativities, Technologies, and Media in Music

Learning and Teaching Gary McPherson, Graham F. Welch, 2018 Creativities Media and Technology in Music Learning and Teaching reviews the diverse types of creativity found within music education practice across the globe The volume explores the transformative changes within the discipline resulting from new technologies and rapid advances in media and the implications these have for the future The ^AOxford Handbook of Care in Music Education Karin S. Hendricks, 2023-08-29 The Oxford Handbook of Care in Music Education addresses multiple conceptualizations of caring relationships in music education Principal themes of the handbook include philosophical perspectives on care and music education co creating caring relationships caring for wellbeing and human flourishing and care social activism and critical consciousness The essays highlight the essence of authentic relationships and shared experiences between teachers and learners extending previous conceptions of care to meet the needs of contemporary music learners and the teachers who care for about and with them Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art , 1876 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 Contexts for Music Learning and Participation Andrea Creech, Maria Varvarigou, Susan Hallam, 2020-07-27 This book sets out a contemporary perspective on music education highlighting complex intersections between informal non formal and formal practices and contexts At a time when the boundaries between music learning and participation are increasingly blurred this volume is distinctive in challenging a siloed approach to understanding the diverse international music education landscape Instead the book proposes a multi layered continuum of practices that can be applied across a range of formal informal or non formal concepts to support the development of musical possible selves It challenges existing conceptions of learning in music education in part by drawing on research in adult learning but also by considering the contexts in which learning takes place and the extent to which this learning can be classified as formal informal or non formal Digital Music Learning Resources Marcella Mandanici, Simone Spagnol, Luca Andrea Ludovico, Adriano Baratè, Federico Avanzini, 2023-07-26 This book offers an overview of the complex world of digital materials for music education and of their possible use in the everyday practice of music teachers It presents a multidimensional taxonomy of digital materials for music education Through the taxonomy it is possible to derive a clear framework of the whole field and to perform analysis of the state of art The book shows the use of this flexible and powerful knowledge tool for reviewing the digital materials in the various domains and dimentions The book provides researchers and designers with an overview of what has already been designed proposed and tested in the field It also offers music teachers a wider perspective of the possibilities connected to current technologies in the field of music education and it suggests possible interrelationships between research and music education practices Music in the Human Experience Donald A. Higher Music Performance Education as taught and learned in universities and conservatoires in Europe is undergoing transformation Since the nineteenth century the master apprentice pedagogical model has dominated creating a learning environment that emphasises the development of technical skills rather than critical and creative faculties This book contributes to the renewal of this field by being the first to address the potential of artistic research in developing student centred approaches and greater student autonomy This potential is demonstrated in chapters illustrating artistic research projects that are embedded within higher music education courses across Europe with examples ranging from instrumental tuition and ensemble work to the development of professional employability skills and inclusive practices Bringing together diverse and experienced voices working within Higher Music Education but often also as professional performers this edited collection pairs critical reflection with artistic insight to present new approaches to curricula for teaching interpretation and performance It calls for greater collaboration between Higher Education and professional music institutions to create closer bonds with music industries and thereby improve students career opportunities Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education will appeal to scholars performers teachers but also students whose interests centre on innovative practices in conservatoires and music departments
