Transforming Research Excellence McLean, Robert, Tijssen, Robert, Wallace, Matthew L., Kraemer-Mbula, Erika, 2020-01-18 Modern day science is under great pressure A potent mix of increasing expectations limited resources tensions between competition and cooperation and the need for evidence based funding is creating major change in how science is conducted and perceived Amidst this perfect storm is the allure of research excellence a concept that drives decisions made by universities and funders and defines scientists research strategies and career trajectories But what is excellent science And how to recognise it After decades of inquiry and debate there is still no satisfactory answer Are we asking the wrong question Is reality more complex and excellence in science more elusive than many are willing to admit And how should excellence be defined in different parts of the world particularly in lower income countries of the Global South where science is expected to contribute to pressing development issues despite often scarce resources Many wonder whether the Global South is importing with or without consenting the flawed tools for research evaluation from North America and Europe that are not fit for purpose This book takes a critical view of these issues touching on conceptual issues and practical problems that inevitably emerge when excellence is at the center of science systems Emerging from the capacity building work of the Science Granting Councils Initiative in sub Saharan Africa it speaks to scholars as well as to managers and funders of research around the world Confronting sticky problems and uncomfortable truths the chapters contain insights and recommendations that point towards new solutions both for the Global South and the Global North

Clinical Epidemiology of Chronic Liver Diseases Robert J. Wong, Robert G. Gish, 2018-10-24 This book emphasizes the clinical epidemiology of chronic liver diseases with a specific focus on the methodology of the discussed studies The whole spectrum of liver diseases is covered from chronic hepatitis B and C to hepatocellular carcinoma alcoholic and non alcoholic fatty liver diseases and autoimmune and cholestatic liver diseases Readers will find the most up to date information on clinical epidemiology of hepatology and will also be able to learn about important methodology and biostatistics information Each chapter contains a summary table at the end of each chapter that highlights the most relevant landmark studies their main outcomes and the unique features of the methodology The book will appeal to both practicing clinicians as well as clinical research investigators In addition this would likely be of interest to medical school or public health school students to learn about hepatology epidemiology but also some specific fundamentals of clinical research and clinical epidemiology

North-South Knowledge Networks Towards Equitable Collaboration Between Tor Halvorsen, Jorun Nossun, 2017-02-23 Since the 1990s internationalisation has become key for institutions wishing to secure funding for higher education and research For the academic community this strategic shift has had many consequences Priorities have changed and been influenced by new ways of thinking about universities and of measuring their impact in relation to each other and to their social goals Debates are ongoing and hotly contested In this collection a mix of renowned academics and newer voices reflect on some of the realities of international research partnerships They both question and highlight the agency of academics donors and research institutions in the geopolitics of knowledge and power The contributors offer fresh insights on institutional transformation the setting of research agendas and access to research funding while highlighting the dilemmas researchers face when their institutions are vulnerable to state and donor influence Offering a range of perspectives on why academics should collaborate and what for this book will be useful to anyone interested in how scholars are adapting to the realities of international networking and how research institutions are finding innovative ways to make NorthSouth partnerships and collaborations increasingly fair sustainable and mutually beneficial
