

The Coming Crisis In American Higher Education⁶²

Higher education in America, during the 21st century, will face significant hurdles. It will result in most feeder private high schools and also land grant colleges disappearing. Unbeknownst to most Americans, many private liberal arts colleges will also fold. Only the state university systems will have the resources to build the technological infrastructure necessary to be competitive on a global scale. Moreover, most land grant colleges will be hobbled by excess dilapidated plant and many will be forced to consolidate campuses or close down.

But more importantly, the post-war system of "financial aid"⁶³, "need blind" admissions⁶⁴, standardized testing-based social planning⁶⁵, and graduate studies⁶⁶ in the United States will completely disappear by 2031 when Russia, India, and China get fully integrated into the world economy. The process has already started.

The reduction in Asian and Arab student visas has drastically affected the tuition that state universities charge. Asian and Arab minorities are primarily utilized to lift the grade point averages published in statistical surveys. In addition, many of
