Sexualizing Cancer Laura Mamo, 2023-12-20 The virus that changed how we think about cancer and its culprits and the vaccine that changed how we talk about sex and its risks Starting in 2005 people in the US and Europe were inundated with media coverage announcing the link between cervical cancer and the sexually transmitted virus HPV Within a year product ads promoted a vaccine targeting cancer s viral cause and girls and women became early consumers of this new cancer vaccine An understanding of HPV s broadening association with other cancers led to the identification of new at risk populations namely boys and men and ignited a plethora of gender and sexual issues related to cancer prevention Sexualizing Cancer is the first book dedicated to the emergence and proliferation of the HPV vaccine along with the medical capacity to screen for HPV crucial landmarks in the cancer prevention arsenal based on a novel connection between sex and chronic disease Interweaving accounts from the realms of biomedical science public health and social justice Laura Mamo chronicles cervical cancer s journey out of exam rooms and into public discourse She shows how the late twentieth century scientific breakthrough that identified the human papilloma virus as having a causative role in the onset of human cancer galvanized sexual politics struggles for inclusion new at risk populations and ultimately a new regime of cancer prevention Mamo reveals how gender and other equity arguments from within scientific medical and advocate communities shaped vaccine guidelines clinical trial funding research practices and clinical programs with consequences that reverberate today This is a must read history of medical expansion from a woman s disease to a set of cancers that affect all genders and of lingering sexualization with specific gendered racialized and other contours along the way

Evolution of an Academic Department Barry S. Verkauf, MD, MBA, 2014-04-10 The health care industry and its professional practice are currently in uncertain times as the outcome of the hotly debated health care reform is awaited While the magnitude of potential change may be unchallenged the past century has been one of continual change for the medical profession and its practice The rapidity of this change has continually increased with emerging new technologies and changes in the social fabric of society Even the doctor patient relationship has changed Medicine as a profession and the specialties within it have had to adapt to this change in order to be relevant to the physicians it trains the patients they treat and to maintain status among their peers This book chronicles the history of the successful adaptation to required changes in one medical school department

Capacity Building in Technology Transfer Massimiliano Granieri, Andrea Basso, 2018-07-12 This book tells the story of capacity building in Europe with respect to technology transfer offices and organizations TTOs The traditional underdevelopment of technology markets in Europe has often been explained in terms of lack of capacity and skills among technology transfer professionals both as individuals and as part of TTOs Because of the severe consequences for economic development and industrial growth this situation has been repeatedly addressed by policy makers until the European Commission within the framework of Horizon 2020 decided to initiate a pan European pilot project on capacity building This book builds on the experience gained through that project and tries to reconnect it with current scholarly works on technology management by focusing on the new methodology developed In addition the authors present a series of case studies that may be used as a benchmark and as examples that will help high potential TTOs to improve their performance Both practitioners and researchers will benefit from the holistic perspective of the book which goes beyond the traditional approach and attempts to reconcile the theory and practice of organizing for technology transfer

Lifestyle Medicine Jeffrey I. Mechanick, Robert F. Kushner, 2025-05-26 This book represents the third in a series of Springer textbooks on Lifestyle Medicine by Dr Mechanick and Dr Kushner The first book focused on theory and practice concepts The second book focused on implementation with a specific tactic of building a lifestyle medicine center This third book focuses on scientific evidence to close research gaps knowledge gaps and practice gaps The general intent is to imbue the field of lifestyle medicine with scientific evidence The other intent is to continue advancing a culture of preventive care for chronic disease using lifestyle medicine but again through a tactic of emphasizing science evidence and critical thinking Lifestyle Medicine Closing Research Practice and Knowledge Gaps is organized into three sections In the first section driver based chronic disease models and other elements that pertain to lifestyle medicine are explored in terms of current levels of scientific substantiation In the second section educational modalities are presented that can improve awareness of scientific and experiential knowledge by healthcare professionals Topics include innovative teaching models web based activities training and accreditation programs and certification exams In the third section a variety of clinical scenarios are presented to highlight practice gaps implementation issues where there is inadequate clinical action despite an awareness of the pertinent knowledge The topics span critical domains that must be addressed so that lifestyle medicine can lead to favorable outcomes in people and populations at risk These domains include alcohol and substance abuse colitis brain health environmental risk pharmacotherapy de escalation routine change socioeconomics transculturalization advanced analytics home cardiac rehabilitation digital twin technology and a highly referenced discussion of the lifestyle medicine ecosystem and infrastructure Care is taken to provide not only theoretical foundations but also case studies where appropriate to emphasize critical aspects In conclusion this third book on Lifestyle Medicine will complement the previous two Springer books and define a compendium of resources necessary for anyone interested in this field

Relationship Between Faculty Assessment of Resident Medical Knowledge and Resident Performance on the CREOG In-service

Examination Emily K. Vinas, 2015 In 2012 13% of Obstetrics and Gynecology Ob Gyn physicians failed the American Board in Obstetrics and Gynecology ABOG written exam the first step to becoming certified following their 48 month residency training During their training Ob Gyn residents take the Council on Resident Education in Obstetrics and Gynecology CREOG in training exam This annual test was designed in part to measure an Ob Gyn resident's fund of knowledge and may determine their level of preparedness for the ABOG written exam However the test is not intended to be the exclusive assessment tool utilized by training programs to determine a resident's medical knowledge In order to supplement this assessment educators from one academic training program performed monthly evaluations of residents medical knowledge using a standard instrument but the accuracy of their assessment was unknown A positive relationship between faculty evaluations of residents in general gynecology and general obstetrics and resident scores in these domains on in training exam may more quickly establish a need for resident remediation to help ensure board exam passage The purpose of this study was to determine if such a relationship exists Archival in service exam scores and average faculty evaluation scores of medical knowledge in general gynecology and general obstetrics were collected at one training program from 2009 2014 and were used to determine the relationship if any between the two sets of scores Data analysis yielded mixed results A moderate relationship existed in the area of obstetrics in all years with the strongest correlation found in the PGY2 year The gynecology results showed no correlation between the faculty evaluations and the exam scores for the PGY2 and PGY4 years with only a weak statistically significant correlation in the domain of gynecology for the PGY3 year The study concluded that faculty may be evaluating technical skill in gynecology rather than medical knowledge and that consistent exposure to a core group of supervising educators may have contributed to a stronger relationship in the area of obstetrics Recommendations for future practice to identify earlier opportunities for intervention included training the faculty to improve evaluation technique creating new learning opportunities for the residents in the clinical environment and scheduling more consistent exposure to full time core faculty Minimizing Post-Op Pain Susan A. Crockett, M.d., 2016-05-08 Our team has a pretty fantastic job Every week we get to meet together in the OR with the chance to help patients increase their quality of life In our OR we say that every case is like Christmas because although we can do all our history physical taking imaging and workup we never really know what we're getting into until we open it up That is where the joy and the art of surgery take over A creative process unlike any other where our surgical team goes into action to maximize results and minimize our impact on the patient The goal is painless scarless bloodless surgery In this book our surgical team is proud to share with you our multimodal pain prevention protocol based on our experiential knowledge gained from almost 500 robotic cases Many of our ideas are similar to those developed and shared by ERAS Enhanced Recovery After Surgery Society <http://www.erassociety.org> In addition to sharing with you our hard science methods of approaching multiple pain pathways we will also be sharing some very practical and powerful psychological tools we use to enhance the postoperative experience for patients and make you the hero with them We are in private practice so we are completely dependent on patient satisfaction for maintaining a financially stable and successful practice Reputation is gold Although our specialty is minimally invasive benign gyn it is our hope that you will find useful techniques in this program that will translate to your field of surgery as well Manual of Standards in Obstetric-gynecologic Practice American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. American Board Of Obstetrics Gynecology Abog 2014: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. American Board Of Obstetrics Gynecology Abog 2014 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pappen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
