Pattern Recognition and Computer Vision Christian Wallraven,Ran He,Brian Lovell,Prithwi Chakraborty,2025-11-08 This two volume set LNCS 16174 16175 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 8th Asian Conference on Pattern Recognition ACPR 2025 held in Gold Coast QLD Australia in November 10 13 2025 The 60 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 118 submissions The ACPR 2025 Conference focuses on four important areas of pattern recognition pattern recognition and machine learning computer vision and robot vision signal speech and video processing and document media processing and interaction covering various technical aspects The Nation ,2008 The Evolution of Memory Systems Elisabeth A. Murray,Steven P. Wise,Kim S. Graham,2017 The Evolution of Memory Systems sets out a bold and exciting new theory about memory It proposes that several memory systems arose during evolution and that they did so for the same general reason to transcend problems and exploit opportunities encountered by specific ancestors at particular times and places in the distant past The Constellational Novel Louis Klee,2025-08-05 A constellational novel is a novel that has an associative essayistic digressive and densely patterned prose form The Constellational Novel aims to shed light on the field of contemporary literature by offering a definitive theory of the constellational novel These novels are recognizable by the presence of a first person narrator committed to drawing affinities and making connections among disparate things Beginning with Marcel Proust Klee s argument focuses on novels published over roughly the last two decades between 2001 and 2020 by writers such as W G Sebald Lisa Robertson Teju Cole Jacqueline Rose and Olga Tokarczuk Strikingly it is often assumed that the attunement of their narrators to an unfolding web of potential interconnections holds an ethical promise of new ways of relating to oneself others and the world Klee considers this implication of ethics and associative form to be peculiar and in some important respects unprecedented in the history of the novel How is recognizing connections between things ethical exactly Could it not simply be the working of a resourceful or possibly even deranged intelligence one that obsessively sees patterns everywhere Why should the value of literature hinge on such an idiosyncratic process And what does finding affinities have to do with the more familiar categories of novelistic form like character and narrative Taking inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin this book analyzes the distinctive ethics of affinity offered by these novels and thus seeks to clarify one of the most intriguing and consequential developments in the contemporary novel A Landscape of Travel Jenny T. Chio,2014-03-28 While the number of domestic leisure travelers has increased dramatically in reform era China the persistent gap between urban and rural living standards attests to ongoing social economic and political inequalities The state has widely touted tourism for its potential to bring wealth and modernity to rural ethnic minority communities but the policies underlying the development of tourism obscure some complicated realities In tourism after all one person s leisure is another person s labor A Landscape of Travel investigates the contested meanings and unintended consequences of tourism for those people whose lives and livelihoods are most at stake in China's rural ethnic tourism industry the residents of village destinations Drawing on ethnographic research conducted in Ping'an a Zhuang village in Guangxi and Upper Jidao a Miao village in Guizhou Jenny Chio analyzes the myriad challenges and possibilities confronted by villagers who are called upon to do the work of tourism She addresses the shifting significance of migration and rural mobility the visual politics of tourist photography and the effects of touristic desires for exotic difference on village social relations In this way Chio illuminates the contemporary regimes of labor and leisure and the changing imagination of what it means to be rural ethnic and modern in China today Catalog of Copyright Entries.

physical landscape has been appropriated by artists throughout temporal and spatial history to represent or present political social and national identities Artists have long imbued the landscape with personal and public ideologies Indeed landscapes can be more than simple representations of scenic beauty when artists use the genre to convey or reflect upon various political and social concerns important in different periods This collection of essays brings together the perspectives of scholars from a variety of backgrounds Subjects range from Venetian Renaissance waterscapes to the rolling farm hills of Grant Wood and from native Botswana imagery to ecosensitive Florida portraits These examinations of landscapes consider the rich ideology and iconography that define and redefine peoples and places CD-ROMs in Print ,2002 The
