(Washington, DC) March 11th (1829)

Thousands and thousands of people, without distinction or rank, collected in an immense mass round the Capital, silent, orderly, and tranquil, with their eyes fixed on the front of that edifice (large or impressive building), waiting the appearance of the President...The door open,... the old man with his grey locks (hair), that crown of glory advances, bows to the people, who greet him with a shout that rends (splits) the air...It was grand, it was sublime! An almost breathless silence... and the multitude (crowd) was still, listening to catch the sound of his voice, tho' (though) it was so low, as to be heard only by those nearest to him. After...(he read) his speech, the oath was administered to him by the Chief Justice."

"It is to be regretted that the rich and powerful too often bend the acts of government to their selfish purposes....Distinctions in society will always exist under every just government....But when the laws undertake to.... Make the rich richer and the potent more powerful, the humble members of society....have a right to complain of the injustice of their Government."
