present day Nicaragua underwent a key transformation when two Moravian missionaries arrived in 1849. Within a few short generations the new faith became so firmly established there that eastern Nicaragua to this day remains one of the world's strongest Moravian enclaves. The Awakening Coast offers the first comprehensive English language selection of the writings of the multinational missionaries who established the Moravian faith among the indigenous and Afro-descendant populations through the turbulent years of the Great Awakening of 1881 to 1882 when converts flocked to the church and the mission's membership more than doubled. The anthology tracks the intersection of religious, political, and economic forces that led to this dynamic religious shift and illustrates how the mission's first fifty years turned a relatively obscure branch of Protestantism into the most important political and spiritual institution in the region by contextualizing the Great Awakening, Protestant evangelism, and indigenous identity during this time of dramatic social change.

The Spirituality of the German Awakening August Tholuck, 2003. This volume introduces readers to the faith and work of four figures of the 19th century revival movement called the German Awakening: August Tholuck (1799-1871), Johann Hinrich Wichern (1808-1881), Theodor Fliedner (1800-1864), and Friedrich von Bodelschwingh (1831-1910). The German Awakening engendered a spirituality that fostered human kindness, grounded it in awakened faith, and gave it the shape of loving service to society. This remarkable and unique scholarly contribution translates the majority of its materials for the first time in English; it includes a variety of spiritual genres: sermons, hymns, commentaries, mission statements, etc.

The Golden Dawn of Awakening Colin Drake,2018-04-13 The main aim of this book is to act as a stand alone guide to Awakening which is synonymous with Enlightenment when maintained The title comes from a photo I took of the dawning of a golden day which a friend suggested I use as for the cover This book is composed of articles resulting from my further investigations and contemplations into the nature of Reality The thrust of the book is that beneath the surface appearance of thoughts including all mental activity and sensations there is a deeper level of being which is the perceiver of these The former are a flow of fleeting objects whereas the latter which is the Awareness of these is a constant conscious subjective presence This is the only constant that has been with you since you were born and that which has witnessed your entire life So this is what you actually are rather than the ever changing body mind in which these thoughts and sensations have occurred

After Aethon's death, Penelope succeeds him as the new spiritual leader in Mount Ida. Odysseus leads an international school in Mount Ida dedicated to training young future leaders of peoples for enlightenment, peace, and prosperity of humanity. Odysseus relates to Homer Outis what he and Penelope learned from wise Aethon about the wisdom and theology of ancient Egypt. They realize that personified deities are not real entities but mere wishful illusions invented by humans in their minds. Eventually Homer Outis becomes enlightened; he confesses to Odysseus that he has been misled in proud vanity to follow guileful minstrels who abused hoax muses as their poetic conceits to justify their travesties of absurd divine affairs. He vows to sing of the plain truth deep from his pure conscience without the poetic conceit of hoax muses. Odysseus and Homer Outis become mysteriously transfigured into one enlightened being. At this moment the earnest and conscientious bard Homer Outis wakes up from his spiritual dream inspired afresh to write a new epic Inner Journey into Human Nature.
