Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2008-04-01 In his long anticipated third volume Of God and Gods Blake Ostler steps through the common complaint that Mormons aren't Christians because they believe in three separate individuals in the Godhead as well as the deification of human beings He demonstrates the clear biblical understanding both in the precursors of the Old Testament and the New that Jesus and God the Father were not one in some incomprehensible substance while separate in person but were actually distinct individuals What made them one was their indwelling love It is that loving unity into which they invite human beings In language and thought accessible to the lay reader but simultaneously rigorous and scholarly Ostler analyzes and responds to the arguments of contemporary international theologians reconstructs and interprets Joseph Smith's important King Follett Discourse and Sermon in the Grove just before the Mormon prophet's death and argues persuasively for the Mormon doctrine of robust deification
