Coasts for People Fikret Berkes, 2015-02-11 Issues of sustainability and increased competition over coastal resources are changing practices of resource management Societal concerns about environmental degradation and loss of coastal resources have steadily increased while other issues like food security biodiversity and climate change have emerged A full set of social ecological and economic objectives to address these issues are recognized but there is no agreement on how to implement them This interdisciplinary and big picture book through a series of vivid case studies from environments throughout the world suggests how to achieve these new resource management principles in practical accessible ways

Rethinking Literary Naturalism Ian James, 2025-04-16 This book gives original readings of Proust and Quignard to elaborate a novel theory of literary naturalism Drawing on contemporary biological perspectives the book argues that despite their opposition to traditional naturalism both understand human experience meaning making and creativity as being immanent to and as emerging from shared biological life Rethinking Literary Naturalism reads contemporary biosemiotic theory Proust and Quignard alongside each other in the context of a shared genealogy that leads back into nineteenth century philosophical and literary visions of natural life that are inherited from German Romanticism and Idealism Here biological theory and forms of literary practice are recast as distinct techniques of thought that aim to situate themselves in relation to biological life Each in its own way is shown to adopt an interpretative posture that steps back into the immanence of sense and meaning that is constitutive of qualitatively lived existence Each produces a different kind of knowledge scientific literary literary philosophical of shared biological life that can be understood as distinctive variations of a saying after life The novel literary naturalism that is rethought here can be understood as post dicative and as being entirely distinct from that of mile Zola Maupassant or the Goncourt brothers General Pedagogy Martha M. A. Zama, Margaret Nalova Endeley, 2023-02-24 General Pedagogy A Guide to Effective Teaching demystifies the scientific art of teaching by providing facts principles and concrete examples in real life situations such that neither the novice teacher who peruses it will stutter in front of students on the first day of school nor will the experienced teacher write and execute the same old lesson plans on that day The best teachers are those who show you where to look but don t tell you what to see is a popular quote attributed to Alexandra K Trenfor which aptly summarises the kind of teachers this book intends to produce when used as a teacher training resource Real teachers facilitate learning they do not simply tell learners the answers to their questions and concerns Accordingly the authors take the readers through well researched themes in the academic discipline of teaching wherein they present analyse and discuss pertinent issues Although they provide useful suggestions for teaching success the authors encourage teachers to interpret facts ideas and suggestions presented against the sociocultural contexts of their practice The materials are presented creatively while adding a personal touch intended to facilitate effective and efficient learning For coherence and better comprehension the book has been carefully crafted in eighteen chapters lodged in six parts The first part introduces the reader to the concepts of teaching and teaching effectiveness The theoretical underpinnings of these concepts are brought out in the second part which paves the way for the third part that describes generic teaching approaches strategies and methods Part four and five comprise essential teaching skills and teaching tools for the 21st century while part six wraps up with the transition from teacher training laboratories to classrooms in the real world The last two chapters intentionally prepare the teacher to overcome challenges of professional work in contemporary African classrooms Military Review ,2014 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2014-07
