Administrative Law In Context Flood:

Administrative Law in Context Colleen M. Flood, Paul Daly, 2021 Administrative Law in Context 4th Edition continues this title's approach to administrative law in the important contexts that shape legal ideas and doctrines in this field. It examines key principles and cases by leveraging the distinct voices of leading scholars and instructors from across Canada, including an analysis of the recent Vavilov trilogy of cases from the Supreme Court of Canada and their significant affect on how judicial reviews of administrative decisions are now conducted in Canada. This detailed collaborative analysis gives students a better sense of how administrative boards and tribunals work in practice and differentiates itself from Admin8 by using a contemporary experiential pedagogy that employs increased commentary and discussion. Administrative Law in Context Lorne Mitchell Sossin, Janet Eaton Mosher, Osgoode Hall Law School. Professional Development Programme, 2001

Administrative Law in Context Lorne Sossin, 2000 A Culture of Justification Paul Daly, 2023-08-15 Canadian administrative law was bedevilled for many decades by uncertainty and confusion. In 2019 the Supreme Court of Canada sought to bring this chaos to an end in its landmark decision Canada Minister of Citizenship and Immigration v Vavilov. In A Culture of Justification Paul Daly explains why Canada's administrative law was uncertain and confusing and he assesses the proposition that Vavilov provides a roadmap to a brighter future. Looking at administrative law from its historic origins in sixteenth and seventeenth century England, identifying the complexity of its underlying structure and describing divergent judicial attitudes to the growing administrative state, Daly builds a framework for understanding why multiple previous reform efforts failed and why Vavilov might very well succeed. This engaging study shows readers how a newly emerged culture of justification allows courts and citizens to insist on the reasoned exercise of public power by the administrative state.

Domestic Judicial Review of Trade Remedies Müslüm Yılmaz, 2013-01-17 Trade remedies, namely anti-dumping countervailing measures and safeguards, are one of the most controversial issues in today's global trading environment. When used, such measures effectively close the markets of the importing countries to competition from outside for a certain period of time. Exporters that are faced with such measures can either try to convince their government to bring a case against the government of the importing country in the WTO or to use themselves the judicial review mechanism of the importing country. This second path has been until now largely unexamined. Domestic Judicial Review of Trade Remedies is the first book of its kind to examine in detail how the judicial review process has functioned and considers the experiences in the domestic courts of the twenty one WTO members that are the biggest users of trade remedies The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice Marc Hertogh, Richard Kirkham, Robert Thomas, Joe Tomlinson, 2022 The core animating feature of administrative justice scholarship is the desire to understand how justice is achieved through the delivery of public services and the actions inactions and decision making of administrative bodies The study of administrative justice also encompasses the redress systems by which people can challenge administrative bodies to seek the correction of injustices For a long time now scholars have been interested in administrative justice but without necessarily framing their work as such Rather than existing under the rubric of administrative justice much of the research undertaken has existed within sub categories of disciplines such as law sociology public policy politics and public administration Consequently although aspects of the topic have attracted rich contributions across such disciplines administrative justice has rarely been studied or taught in a manner that integrates these areas of research more systematically This Handbook signals a major change of approach Drawing together a group of world leading scholars of administrative justice from a range of disciplines The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice shows how administrative justice is a vibrant complex and contested field that is best understood as an area of inquiry in its own right rather than through traditional disciplinary silos Public Administration and Expertise in Democratic Governments Susan Rose-Ackerman, 2024-05-23 This collection deals with challenges confronting public law and public administration in twenty first century democracies across the world It draws together contributions from leading scholars examining cutting edge topics and projecting the scholarship forward It emphasizes the importance both of justifying executive policymaking to citizens and of drawing on bureaucratic expertise and professional competence Contributors examine the role of courts and argue for new forms of public participation that can incorporate democratic values into executive branch policymaking Finally the work confronts problems in the administration of the criminal law that are generating increased public concern Building on Rose Ackerman s scholarship writers compare the American experience with contemporary developments in other leading democracies in particular Germany France the EU Canada and Latin America The work will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of Administrative Law Public Law and Political Science Law's Relations Jennifer Nedelsky, 2011-06-30 In this brilliantly innovative work Jennifer Nedelsky claims that we must rethink our notion of autonomy rejecting the usual vocabulary of control boundaries and individual rights If we understand that we are fundamentally in relation to others she argues we will recognize that we become autonomous with others Law s Relations includes many concrete legal applications of her theory of relational autonomy offering new insights into the debates over due process judicial review violence against women and private versus public law
