Adolescent Identity Formation Gerald R. Adams, Thomas P. Gullotta, Raymond Montemayor, 1992-02-04 The way identity influences the way adolescents make decisions and cope with stress is one of the topics explored in this thought provoking volume The contributors examine the processes of identity formation social and behavioural outcomes and management social contextual factors and issues of alternative conceptualizations and measurement They also address subjects such as women s identity and Erikson s notions of inner space a multidimensional approach to ethnic identity and the influence of cognitive identity styles on ways in which adolescents cope with stress Identity in Adolescence 4e Laura Ferrer-Wreder, Jane Kroger, 2019-07-05 This fully revised fourth edition of Identity in Adolescence The Balance Between Self and Other presents four theoretical perspectives on identity development during adolescence and young adulthood and their practical implications for intervention Ferrer Wreder and Kroger consider adolescent identity development as the unique intersection of social and cultural forces in combination with individual factors that each theoretical model stresses in attempting to understand the identity formation process for contemporary adolescents Identity in Adolescence addresses the complex question of how adolescent identity forms and develops during adolescence and young adulthood and serves as the foundation for entering adult life The book is unique in its presentation of four selected models that address this process along with cutting edge research and the implications that each of these models hold for practical interventions This new edition has been comprehensively revised with five completely new chapters and three that have been extensively updated New special topics are also addressed including ethnic sexual and gender identity development the role of technology in adolescent identity development and ongoing identity development beyond adolescence The book is essential reading for advanced undergraduate and graduate students studying adolescent development self and social identity within developmental psychology social psychology and clinical psychology as well as practitioners in the fields of child welfare and mental health services social work youth and community work and counselling Identity in Adolescence Jane Kroger, 2004 Fully updated to include the most recent research and theoretical developments in the field the third edition of Identity in Adolescence examines the two way interaction of individual and social context in the process of identity formation Setting the developmental tradition in context Jane Kroger begins by providing a brief overview of the theoretical approaches to adolescent identity formation currently in use This is followed by a discussion of five developmental models which reflect a range of attempts from the oldest to among the most recent efforts to describe this process and include the work of Erik Erikson Peter Blos Lawrence Kohlberg Jane Loevinger and Robert Kegan Although focussing on each theorist in turn this volume also goes on to compare and integrate the varied theoretical models and research findings and sets out some of the practical implications for social response to adolescents Different social and cultural conditions and their effect on the identity formation process are also covered as are contemporary contextual narrative and postmodern approaches to understanding and researching identity issues The book is ideal reading for students of adolescence identity and developmental psychology
