authoritative survey of creative writing in Arabic from the mid nineteenth century to the present day Modern Arabic Drama in Egypt Muḥammad Muṣṭafá Badawī,1987 This book is the first critical survey of modern Egyptian drama during the period of its maturity from the 1930s to the present day A discussion of the work of Tawfiq al Hakim is followed by an examination of the less experimental plays of his successors Mahmud Taymur Bakathir and Fathi Radwan Languaging Class: Reflecting on the Linguistic Articulations of Structural Inequalities Claudia Ortu,Francesco Bachis,2023-04-18 This volume explores the issue of social class from the point of view of its linguistic articulations Indeed as Machin and Richardson 2008 stated discourses may be variously approached as often simultaneously reflecting class structures as a site of class inequalities as expressive of class identities or class consciousness and or as a constituent part of more performative class action Some of the contributions that make up the volume were presented at a conference held at Cagliari University Italy in 2017 and responded to the call for analyses on the role of language in reflecting maintaining enacting and inculcating ideas on social class in literary and non literary texts and discourses in any cultural or linguistic setting This volume aspires to encourage scholars in disciplines and academic fields that have shied away from reflections on structural inequalities in favor of studies on ethnic gender and cultural identities in the last decades to take back on board the concept of social class and to engage with it in a novel way The variety of approaches ranging from the more traditional sociolinguistic one anthropology to literary and discourse studies and cultural settings with case studies coming from 3 continents represented in the chapters show that social class is a productive and illuminating concept for trying to re make sense of social reproduction and change

Ordinary Egyptians Ziad Fahmy, 2011-05-31 The popular culture of pre revolution Egypt did more than entertain it created a nation Songs jokes and satire comedic sketches plays and poetry all provided an opportunity for discussion and debate about national identity and an outlet for resistance to British and elite authority This book examines how from the 1870s until the eve of the 1919 revolution popular media and culture provided ordinary Egyptians with a framework to construct and negotiate a modern national identity Ordinary Egyptians shifts the typical focus of study away from the intellectual elite to understand the rapid politicization of the growing literate middle classes and brings the semi literate and illiterate urban masses more fully into the historical narrative It introduces the concept of media capitalism which expands the analysis of nationalism beyond print alone to incorporate audiovisual and performance media It was through these various media that a collective camaraderie crossing class lines was formed and as this book uncovers an Egyptian national identity emerged
