Narrative Framing in Contemporary American Novels Sławomir Studniarz, 2017-05-11 This volume examines a range of novels and novellas published over the course of nearly forty years from 1968 to 2014 including E L Doctorow s Andrew s Brain John Gardner s The King s Indian Paul Auster s Travels in the Scriptorium Peter Straub s Mr X and Joyce Carol Oates Expensive People These texts display one crucial unifying thread they are doubly mediated fictions fictions in parentheses so to speak The application of narrative framing and embedding has been commonly acknowledged and abundantly researched in various works belonging to the Western literary heritage However its use in the twentieth and twenty first century fiction has not been adequately explored perhaps with the exception of the literary creations of such giants as Vladimir Nabokov and John Barth Despite this critical oversight narrative frames prove to be a major resource for modern day novelists who adapt this literary device and very effectively put it to their own uses The essays collected in this volume will serve to spark the revival of interest in this time honored narrative tool demonstrating its validity for research into more recently created novels

 POETRY The Selected Works of Andrew Lang Andrew Lang, When the learned first gave serious attention to popular ballads from the time of Percy to that of Scott they laboured under certain disabilities The Comparative Method was scarcely understood and was little practised Editors were content to study the ballads of their own countryside or at most of Great Britain Teutonic and Northern parallels to our ballads were then adduced as by Scott and Jamieson It was later that the ballads of Europe from the Faroes to Modern Greece were compared with our own with European M rchen or children s tales and with the popular songs dances and traditions of classical and savage peoples The results of this more recent comparison may be briefly stated Poetry begins as Aristotle says in improvisation Every man is his own poet and in moments of strong emotion expresses himself in song A typical example is the Song of Lamech in Genesis I have slain a man to my wounding And a young man to my hurt Instances perpetually occur in the Sagas Grettir Egil Skarphedin are always singing In Kidnapped Mr Stevenson introduces The Song of the Sword of Alan a fine example of Celtic practice words and air are beaten out together in the heat of victory In the same way the women sang improvised dirges like Helen lullabies like the lullaby of Danae in Simonides and flower songs as in modern Italy Every function of life war agriculture the chase had its appropriate magical and mimetic dance and song as in Finland among Red Indians and among Australian blacks The deeds of men were chanted by heroes as by Achilles stories were told in alternate verse and prose girls like Homer s Nausicaa accompanied dance and ball play priests and medicine men accompanied rites and magical ceremonies by songs These practices are world wide and world old The thoroughly popular songs thus evolved became the rude material of a professional class of minstrels when these arose as in the heroic age of Greece A minstrel might be attached to a Court or a noble or he might go wandering with song and harp among the people In either case this class of men developed more regular and ample measures They evolved the hexameter the laisse of the Chansons de Geste the strange technicalities of Scandinavian poetry the metres of Vedic hymns the choral odes of Greece The narrative popular chant became in their hands the Epic or the mediaeval rhymed romance The metre of improvised verse changed into the artistic lyric These lyric forms were fixed in many cases by the art of writing But poetry did not remain solely in professional and literary hands The mediaeval minstrels and jongleurs who may best be studied in L on Gautier s Introduction to his Epop es Fran aises sang in Court and Camp The poorer less regular brethren of the art harped and played conjuring tricks in farm and grange or at street corners The foreign newer metres took the place of the old alliterative English verse But unprofessional men and women did not cease to make and sing
