Chapter-Grade Questions*

Chapter 4

1. How was word sent to animals on night-long drives?

Pigeons were sent with word to animals on night-long drives.

2. Name and describe the neighbors on either side of the farm.

Fourwood Farm, owned by the pig-gone Pilkington, was run-down and neglected. Pinchfield, owned by the shrewd Mr. Frederick, was smaller but better kept.

3. How did rebelliousness show itself on other farms?

The animals on other farms sang "Beasts of England."

4. Early in October Jones and men from Fourwood and Pinchfield attempted to take over Animal Farm. Who warned the animals?

The pigeons.

5. What has been studying Julius Caesar's campaign strategies? What was he in charge of?

Snowball, who was in charge of defensive operations.

6. Describe the Battle of Cowshed.

Pigeons and geese pecked, sheep bled, and then there was a false retreat. Once the animals were lined into the troughs they were charged by the horses, cows, and remaining pigs. Snowball was wounded and a sheep killed, while Jones knocked a rabbit over unconscious. The men returned.

7. What said, "The only good human is a dead one"?

Snowball.

8. What is discovered missing? What was she found?

Mollie was discovered missing but was found hiding in her stall.

For Honour S.O. Kenani, 2011-07-27 In the tradition of short story greats like Chekhov and Grace Paley Malawian writer S O Kenani examines weighty subjects with a light touch Delicately balancing humour and pathos For Honour introduces us to the inhabitants of Chipiri a village where everything begins under the kachere tree From Mr Kachingwe willing to enthrall you with his outrageous views on life for the price of a tot and Zione following her dream of becoming an au pair in Europe to Mark who accidentally lands in a civil war in Nileland during a plane crash and Sister Fire arriving to adopt a Malawian child these characters will delight and captivate you Illinois English Bulletin ,1959 Deep Change Gerald Ponder, David Strahan, 2005-11-01 This book presents cases of schools Part One and programs at the district level and beyond Part Two in which reform while driven by high stakes accountability became larger and deeper through data driven dialogue culture change organizational learning and other elements of high performing cultures Commentaries on cross case patterns by Ann Lieberman and Michael Fullan and a chapter on now what first steps provide implications for initiating deep change that results in improved student learning outcomes even in challenging activity settings International Perspectives on the Teaching of Literature in Schools Andrew Goodwyn, Cal Durrant, Louann Reid, Lisa Scherff, 2017-08-31 Literature teaching remains central to the teaching of English around the world This edited text brings together expert global figures under the banner of the International Federation for the Teaching of English IFTE The book captures a state of the art snapshot of leading trends in current literature teaching as well as detailing predicted trends for the future The expert scholar and leading teacher contributors coming from a wide range of countries with fascinatingly diverse approaches to literature teaching cover a range of central and fundamental topics literature and diversity digital literatures pedagogy and reader response mother tongues the business of reading publishers adolescent fiction and censorship assessing responses to literature the changing definitions of literature and multimodal texts The collection reviews the consistently important place of literature in the education of young people and provides international evidence of its enduring value and contribution to education resisting the functionalist and narrowly nationalist perspectives of misguided government authorities International Perspectives on the Teaching of Literature in Schools will be of value to researchers PhD students literature scholars practitioners teacher educators teachers and all those in the extensive academic community interested in English and literacy around the world Teaching Secondary English Daniel Sheridan, 2013-03-07 This new edition of Teaching Secondary English is thoroughly revised but its purpose has not changed Like the popular first edition it balances content knowledge with methodology theory with practice and problem posing with suggested solutions The tone and format are inviting while addressing student readers on a professional level Rather than attempting to cover everything the text provides a framework and materials for teaching a secondary English methods course while allowing considerable choice for the instructor The focus is on teaching literature writing and language the basics of the profession Attention is given to the issues that arise as one seeks to explore what it means to teach English The problems and tensions of becoming a teacher are discussed frankly in a manner that helps students figure out their own attitudes and solutions Features Focuses on a few central concepts in the teaching of secondary English Provides an anthology of 22 readable and challenging essays on key topics allowing students to hear a variety of voices and opinions Includes an applications section for each reading that extends the discussion and asks students to explore problems and grapple with important issues related to the articles Offers short writing assignments in questions that follow the readings and in brief writing tasks in the applications and a longer writing assignment at the end of each chapter Addresses student readers directly without talking down to them New in the Second Edition This edition is shorter tighter and easier to use The opening and concluding chapters more directly address the concerns of new teachers The anthology is substantially updated of the 22 articles included 14 are new to this edition Each essay is preceded by a brief introduction and followed by questions for further thought There are fewer applications but these are more extensive and more fully integrated within the text A writing assignment is provided at the end of each chapter Interviews with college students before and after student teaching are included in Chapters 1 and 6 The bibliographies at the end of each chapter are fully updated
