

Annie Armstrong Monologue

By Sheryl Churchill

To make your monologue seem more realistic you will need a costume and a few props.

Costume: Wear a long skirt—black, gray, or brown. Add a long sleeve white tailored blouse, a dark scarf, and a cameo pin. Or you may choose a blouse with a high neck and ruffles.

Props: Hold a copy of the book Annie Armstrong: Dreamer in Action and a pen staff. If desired, sit at an antique desk on which is an unlabeled bottle of ink, a quill pen, and blank stationery. Place the desk facing the audience so the pen and paper are visible.

Stage position: Stand next to the desk as the monologue is delivered.

MONOLOGUE

Good evening. I came here at the request of a friend to give you a personal insight into my life.

Someone handed me this book today. (Hold up the book Annie Armstrong: Dreamer in Action.) She said I should read it. When I saw the title I was very surprised. It is about a woman who put her dreams to work. (Reflective) Annie Armstrong: Dreamer in Action. I suppose I was a dreamer in action. I saw the possibilities for helping people and before I knew it I was right in the middle of making something happen.

As you know, I served many years as corresponding secretary of Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention. It was that position that gave me opportunities to lead the women of the Southern Baptist Convention. Their response through the years was wonderful.

However, long before that I was involved in missions work in my church.

It took me a long time to decide about being a Christian. I could become a Methodist, a Presbyterian, or perhaps an Episcopalian, but never a Baptist! I laugh at that now. I could not have been anything else.

There were many things that influenced my early interest in missions. I saw my mother care for others. I watched my Sunday School children grow spiritually. I always felt that spiritual disciplines were an important part of growing up. It was important in my life.
