more about the woman for whom the house was built Sarah's first entry is dated 1789 the year she arrived in America Without self pity or sentiment she writes of her harrowing journey from her native England having fled the brutality of her aristocratic husband Settling in Massachusetts Sarah finds an unfamiliar land seething with the turbulence of the Indian wars Determined to start a new life in the vast new world Sarah finds freedom and danger as she builds her home in the wilderness and meets a man who will transform her life His name is Francois de Pellerin a French nobleman adopted by Indians and drawn into the battle for the growing nation Their fateful union is a testament to a love so powerful it reaches across the centuries And for Charlie Waterston caught between Sarah's world and his own their story is a gift one that gives him the courage to let go of his past and the freedom to grasp a future that is right before his eyes In The Ghost Danielle Steel has created a stunning blend of history and drama Brilliantly interweaving past and present she brings to life two stories centuries apart in a timeless novel of courage healing and love
