An Uncommon Education:

Uncommon Education Samuel Nyal Henrie, 2009 Uncommon Education traces the evolution of Prescott College In this compelling work Samuel Henrie and others reveal what led to the inception of this special institution the philosophy behind it and a rare curriculum that includes adventure education social and ecological justice fieldwork and other hands on and unique educational opportunities Sam Henrie has made an immense contribution to higher education by chronicling this grand ongoing adventure in learning Prescott College s hands on feet in the field approach not only makes far more sense than the cattle calls that pass for education at most places but its amazing resilience and resurrection is one of the most hopeful stories for our times a true tale of how good ideas really can win if we never give up Alan Weisman Laureate Professor of Journalism University of Arizona retired Professor of Writing at Prescott College author of The World Without Us Gaviotas A Village to Reinvent the World and other works

The Conditions for Admission John Aubrey Douglass, 2007 The first comprehensive study of the admission policies and practices at U S public universities examining their social contract in light of contemporary debates over affirmative action standardized testing privatization and the influences of globalization

Expanding School Quality Through Choice: Twenty Years of Charters in Newark softcover Karen Thomas, 2018-02-15 Much has been written debated and learned about whether the intent of charter schools and their relationship to traditional public schools has been realized The goal has always been to make things better for all children and to offer parents a quality choice In the City of Newark both the quantity and quality of offerings made available to families over the past twenty years have brought progress and promise This book through the voice of various stakeholders is a chronicle of what has taken place in the City of Newark New Jersey
