

THE DUBE TRAIN BY CAN THEMBA

1. Summary

The narrator is at Dube Station in Soweto on a cold Monday morning, waiting for the train to Johannesburg. All his descriptions of the station and people emphasise his depression, which he feels is shared by all the people around him.

When he gets onto the train he sits opposite a huge man. When the train gets to Pheloni Station a young woman enters the carriage and sits next to the narrator. Soon afterwards a tsotsi jumps onto the train and begins verbally harassing the girl. When the girl reaches her stop and wants to get off the train the tsotsi prevents her and slaps her. She tries to get away from him by jumping over the narrator but the tsotsi follows her.

No one dares to say anything to stop the tsotsi, until an older woman starts shouting at the men and calling them cowards. This causes the tsotsi to swear at the woman. This angers the huge man sitting opposite the narrator and he gets up and moves towards the tsotsi. The tsotsi pulls out a knife and cuts the big man's chest and arm. The big man is enraged and, in spite of his injuries, he grabs the tsotsi and lifts him up. He throws him out of the train window.

Everyone is shocked, but the incident soon becomes just another event on the morning Dube train.

2. Title

The title focuses on the train journey rather than on any characters in the story. The writer intends us to see the train journey as a comment on the lives people experience. Even when bad things happen people just accept them. The incident on the train happens to people no one knows or is concerned about. It soon becomes: Just an incident in the morning Dube train.

Can Themba Siphiwo Mahala, 2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924-1967, an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile. Can Themba: The Intellectual Tsotsi a Biography brings to life the iconic South African writer and journalist Can Themba (21 June 1924 – 8 September 1967) who died while exiled in Swaziland in 1967. Best known for his classic short story 'The Suit', Themba has been somewhat of an enigma with very little known about his personal life. This biography brings forth the voices of those who had personal interactions with him, shining the light on different aspects of his life including education, literature, journalism, and political fraternities. It features interviews with prominent individuals including his former students Abdul Bham Pitika Ntuli and Mbulelo Mzamane, journalistic mentees Juby Mayet and Joe Thloloe, as well as friends, colleagues, and contemporaries Parks Mangena, Peter Magubane, Jurgen Schadeberg, Don Mattera, and Nadine Gordimer, in addition to artists and academics Mothobi Mutloatse, Muxe Nkondo, and Njabulo S. Ndebele. Also featured in this biographical text are veteran political figures such as Mangosuthu Buthe, Lezi Lindiwe Mabuza, and Ahmed Kathrada. Themba's intellectual acumen, scholarly aptitude, and wit are some of his most revered characteristics amongst those who had interactions with him, either in person or through comprehensive reading of his works. Mahala is a master storyteller and deftly weaves together the threads of Themba's dynamic life. In this edifying biography, Mahala recreates the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s and the Drum era. Can Themba's successes and failures, as well as his triumphs and tribulations, reverberate on the pages of this long-awaited biography. Lennox-Short, 1972 Satyajit Ray's The Chess Players and Postcolonial Film Theory Reena Dube, 2005-05-04 Indispensable for students of film studies, in this book Reena Dube explores Satyajit Ray's films and The Chess Players in particular in the context of discourses of labour in colonial and postcolonial conditions. Starting from Daniel Defoe and moving through history, short story, and film to the present, Dube widens her analysis with comparisons in which Indian films are situated alongside Hollywood and other films, and interweaves historical and cultural debates within film theory. Her book treats film as part of the larger cultural production of India and provides a historical sense of the cross-genre borrowings, traditions, and debates that have deeply influenced Indian cinema and its viewers. Claiming the City in South African Literature Meg Samuelson, 2021-08-23 This book demonstrates the insights that literature brings to transdisciplinary urban studies and particularly to the study of cities of the South. Starting from the claim staked by mining capital in the late nineteenth century and its production of extractive and segregated cities it surveys over a century of writing in search of counterclaims through which the literature reimagines the city as a place of assembly and attachment Focusing on how the South African city has been designed to funnel gold into the global economy and to service an enclaved minority the study looks to the literary city to advance a contrary emphasis on community conviviality and care An accessible and informative introduction to literature of the South African city at significant historical junctures this book will also be of great interest to scholars and students in urban studies and Global South studies Handbook of Applied
