Centre for Applied Legal Studies, 1996 Johannesburg, 1998 Proceedings of the Second International Nursing Conference "Nursing Profession in the Current Era" (INC 2023) Ahmad Rayan, Nidal Eshah, Ghada Abu Shosha, Latefa Dardas, Kristin Wainwright, 2023-09-30 This is an open access book Nurses are the backbone of any healthcare system Recently the healthcare systems have witnessed various challenges of pandemics nursing shortage limited resources wars an increase in the burden of chronic illnesses and psychiatric disorders and an increase in senior citizens Nurses in all practice settings devote their time to helping people in need to cultivate hope for the survival of humanity Hence the idea of the 2nd International Nursing Conference came to existence from various discussions between the Faculty of Nursing at Zarqa University jointly with the Jordanian Nursing Council and other Nursing Faculties worldwide to shed light on the situation of the nursing profession in present times Holding this conference is an important station for discussion and exchanging views and experiences on the contemporary issues related to various aspects of the nursing profession in light of the challenges facing the health systems worldwide The National Consultative Conference Against the Sexual Exploitation of Children, 16 to 18 March 1999, 1999 A framework for continuous quality improvement for fast-track queues in clinics

in eThekweni Dudu G. Sokhela ,2024-05-31 This book explores primary health care users who visit the clinic for short consultations those who regularly come to collect medication for chronic illnesses such as hypertension diabetes mellitus arthritis epilepsy tuberculosis HIV and AIDS clients for family planning and babies coming for routine weight monitoring immunisation and routine prophylactic treatment Since these health care users come for short consultations the research investigates where the bottlenecks in the clinic queues resulted in long waiting times and if these consultations were of expected quality This book arose from the author s own experience working in a primary health care setting focused on the challenges faced by patients This book will add to the body of knowledge and management of health care users as this book offers practical recommendations that are tailor-made for specific health care users to be implemented by primary health care providers and settings Furthermore the country is faced with a burden of communicable and non communicable diseases New strategies are required to address the ever changing disease pattern and the rapidly growing populations The Palgrave Handbook of Disability and Citizenship in the Global South Brian Watermeyer, Judith McKenzie, Leslie Swartz, 2018-08-11 This handbook questions debates and subverts commonly held assumptions about disability and citizenship in the global postcolonial context Discourses of citizenship and human rights so elemental to strategies for addressing disability based inequality in wealthier nations have vastly different ramifications in societies of the Global South where resources for development are limited democratic processes may be uncertain and access to education health transport and other key services cannot be taken for granted In a broad range of areas relevant to disability equity and transformation an eclectic group of contributors critically consider whether when and how citizenship may be used as a lever of change in circumstances far removed from UN boardrooms in New York or Geneva Debate is polyvocal with voices from the South engaging with those from the North disabled people with nondisabled and activists and politicians intersecting with researchers and theoreticians Along the way accepted wisdoms on a host of issues in disability and international development are enriched and problematized The volume explores what life for disabled people in low and middle income countries tells us about subjects such as identity and intersectionality labour and the global market family life and intimate relationships migration climate change access to the digital world participation in sport and the performing arts and much else ICT Education Henri Emil Van Rensburg, Dirk Petrus Snyman, Lynette Drevin, Günther Richard Drevin, 2024-01-02 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 52nd Annual Conference of the Southern African Computer Lecturers Association on ICT Education SACLA 2023 held in Gauteng South Africa during July 19 21 2023 The 12 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 42 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows student centered teaching and learning AI and future movements programming and beyond the classroom Witchcraft, Violence, and Democracy in South Africa Adam Ashforth, 2005-01-15 Large numbers of people in Soweto other parts of South Africa live in fear of witchcraft presenting complex unique problems for the government Adam Ashforth explores the challenge of occult violence the spiritual insecurity that it engenders to democratic rule in South Africa Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Samantha Hargreaves, Courtney Morgan, Inge Konik, Sonia Phalatse, Busi Sibeko, Dineo Skosana, 2023-07 The Covid pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers Emancipatory Feminism in the time of Covid 19 The seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous Challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover womens responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa To contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women s grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives

Lifestyle and Epidemiology Kotsedi Daniel Monyeki, Han C.G. Kemper, 2021-10-06 Lifestyle and Epidemiology The Double Burden of Poverty and Cardiovascular Diseases in African Populations examines the profile of non communicable diseases NCDs in the rural South African population The burden of diseases in South Africa is characterized by a combination of poverty related diseases with emerging NCDs associated with urbanization industrialization and a Westernised lifestyle Chapters in this book examine the effects of poverty COVID 19 and other social factors on the prevalence of cardiovascular disease reproductive health and diabetes in rural South Africa Juta's Manual of Nursing Anne Young, 2005-04 A focus on the legal aspects of medicine ethical issues and community based work distinguishes this education manual for nurses from previous volumes in the series Discussion questions and self assessments are included in each chapter whose subjects include care for women with special needs disabled clients the elderly and patients with HIV AIDS or a malignant disease

SAMJ ,2007 Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa ,2009 Reflecting on Presence in Nursing

Emmerentia Du Plessis, 2021-03-29 Presence is essential in nursing It means to connect with and attune to another person for the purpose of healing and enrichment This book explores the importance of presence in nursing gathering together various personal accounts of its use in both research and practice It will allow the reader to reflect on presence connecting attuning finding meaning and joy and delivering care in a relational way This book will also be of particular interest to nurse educators and trainers interested in guiding others to acquire presence in addition to healthcare managers who will benefit from the chapter on promoting quality in healthcare through relational leadership The text also has valuable new information to offer to the researcher interested in presence and related concepts such as relational care and relational leadership in healthcare Pathways to Action Kevin Kelly,2002 Epidemics and the Health of African Nations MISTRA,2019-07-25 News footage of disease in Africa is a familiar sight Yet these outbreaks are often presented out of context with no reference to the conditions that have triggered them MISTRA s new book Epidemics and the Health of African Nations aims to redress that Researchers and practitioners from within the continent explore why Africa is so vulnerable to disease and show how this vulnerability is closely linked to political and economic factors They demonstrate how these same factors determine the way epidemics are treated Authors extract lessons from case studies in different parts of Africa challenge conventional frameworks about disease to argue for a syndemics approach that takes into account the interrelationship between disease and political and socio economic contexts explore challenges of Africa s future They argue that a well functioning health system is at the core of a country s capacity to counter an epidemic This volume brings African experts together to probe possible solutions to the continent s heavy burden of disease The insights offered will be helpful in devising policy for the control of disease and the combatting of epidemics in Africa
