Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk, Jimmy Pieterse, 2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology s two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde s fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline s epistemology and political positionality

Education, Translation and Global Market Pressures Wan Hu, 2018-03-07 This book investigates the market driven transformation of the higher education sector and the response given by the translation programmes in the UK and China two vastly different social and economic contexts It provides an in depth look at six selected case studies critically analysing how social economic and political factors have affect curriculum designs in different translation programmes This innovative volume contributes to the development of knowledge in an important area of translation studies and opens a new way for providing both cross national and cross disciplinary perspectives in analysing the curricula of translation programmes
