Zimbabwe's Trajectory V. Masunungure, 2020-11-11 At Independence in 1980 Julius Nyerere called Zimbabwe the jewel of Africa and cautioned its new leaders not to tarnish it Tragically they paid no heed to Africa s esteemed elder statesmen Arguably and only if one ignores the carnage of Gukurahundi the first decade was a developmental one with resources being used prudently to benefit the formerly disadvantaged majority population However the 1990s witnessed a transition from a developmental to a predatory leadership which saw Zimbabwe cross the millennial line in crisis where it has remained ever since While many African countries have moved forward over the last three decades Zimbabwe has gone relentlessly backwards save for the four year interregnum of the tripartite coalition government 2009-2013 Virtually all development indicators point in the wrong direction and the crisis of poverty unemployment and the erosion of health education and other public goods continues unabated The imperatives of political survival and power politics supersede those of sound economics and public welfare Moreover unless good politics are conjoined with a sound people first policy the country will continue sliding downhill Zimbabwe s Trajectory tells the story of the country s post independence dynamics and its recent descent into becoming one of the three most unhappy countries in the world Oswaal Karnataka PUE, Chapterwise & Topicwise, Solved Papers (2017-2023), II PUC Class 12, Business Studies Oswaal Editorial Board, 2023-10-25 Description of the product 100 % Updated for 2023-24 with Latest Reduced Karnataka PUE Syllabus Concept Clarity with Concept wise Revision Notes Mind Maps Mnemonics 100% Exam Readiness with Previous Year s Questions Board Scheme of Valuation Answers Valuable Exam Insights with 2000 NCERT Exemplar Questions Extensive Practice 2 Model Papers 3 Online Model Papers

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna, 2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country. Indigenisation of Zimbabwe's extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non-Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities. This policy, however, was a response to political, economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe's government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000-2003. An intervention, therefore, which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption, co-optation and collusion, which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation. By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power, capital and minerals, and placing extractive industry indigenisation in capitalism, this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular. This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries, natural resource management, African politics and African development.

Livestock climate action in Zimbabwe Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Svinurai, W.; Masunda, B.; Ayabagabo, J.D.D; Cabeza, I.L; Kachidza, F.; Kamana, R.; Reppin, S.; Rulli, M.; Uwizeye, A., 2025-04-25. Zimbabwe is advancing climate change adaptation in its livestock sector with key strategies reflected in both its initial and updated nationally determined contributions (NDCs). Although various climate-smart practices are already being implemented through livestock support programs, their contributions to adaptation and mitigation remain largely undocumented, resulting in their omission from the NDCs. To address this, the Department of Livestock Research has introduced a Tier 2 greenhouse gas (GHG) inventory for cattle, allowing for more accurate assessments of mitigation potential and informing the 2025 NDC update. This report brings together insights from literature reviews, policy analysis and stakeholder consultations to evaluate the current policy landscape for livestock-related climate action. It highlights the sector's growing vulnerability to climate change, including feed scarcity, disease outbreaks and declining productivity. The report identifies key policy gaps and stresses the importance of capacity building, data-driven planning and inclusive engagement to enhance climate resilience and reduce emissions in the livestock sector.

Food Systems Profile – Zimbabwe Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2022-08-03. Food systems are intimately linked to our lives through the food we eat, our nutrition and health, our livelihoods, jobs and the environment and natural resources of the planet. The main challenge for food systems is to produce nutritious food for all while preserving our biodiversity and environment and ensuring equitable distribution of wealth. This Food Systems Profile provides a summary of the main food system issues in Zimbabwe and highlights potential solutions for their sustainable and inclusive transformation It is the result of a systemic analysis and stakeholders consultation that was part of a global assessment of food systems in over 50 countries following a joint initiative by the EU FAO and CIRAD which aims at catalyzing the sustainable and inclusive transformation of food systems

A Cat and Mouse Affair Shora, Bruno, 2018-09-24 Clashes between vendors and authorities have become a common feature of Zimbabwe society Though vending brings some undesirable effects such as chaotic and disorderly business practices it is noted that vending has a particular role to play in times of high unemployment The relationship between vendors and the local authorities is reminiscent of a cat and mouse affair high costs are incurred in carrying out the fights property at times is destroyed there are injuries and in some rare cases fatalities and arrests are made This book offers practical solutions and way in which vending can be organised systematic and much to the economic benefit of society With cases examined from all over the word entrepreneurs the policy maker the civic society and students will find this book useful Its contribution adds much value towards formulating sustainable methods in transforming Zimbabwe s economy and society

Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it

Mugabeism after Mugabe? Duri, Fidelis Peter Thomas, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2019-10-22 Arguably one of the long waited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37 year long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the military s Operation Restore Legacy Mugabe s departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa s reign This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwa s government anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high. There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners especially in the West would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near comatose domestic economy. But did this ever happen? This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017. The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabe's reign into Mnangagwa's Second Republic. In doing so, the book attempts to respond to the grand question: To what extent has Mugabeism that was the hallmark of Mugabe's reign continued or discontinued into the Second Republic? The volume, which comes as a sequel to The end of an era: Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy, is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History, International Studies, Political Science, Sociology, and Social anthropology, as well as from practitioners in the human rights, transitional justice, conflict resolution, security studies, and diplomatic fields.

Multiparty Democracy in Zimbabwe Aaron Rwodzi, 2024-03-26. This book provides a comprehensive account of the tumultuous political landscape of Zimbabwe. Delving into historical and contemporary perspectives, the author analyses the relationship between the ruling ZANU PF party and the opposition, exposing the pervasive influence of foreign powers and their regime change agendas. Amidst western imposed economic sanctions, the book examines how political opposition has struggled to maintain its footing in the face of ZANU PF's rhetoric on preserving the nation's sovereignty. Drawing on the powerful theoretical frameworks of Gramsci's hegemony theory and instrumentalism, the book dissects the constraints on multiparty democracy under ZANU PF's rule. From the party's manipulation of liberation narratives to the subtle intricacies of Mugabeism, a violent and ideological stronghold, the author unveils the tactics employed to maintain power. The chapters uncover the pivotal role played by the military throughout Zimbabwe's history, from the days of the liberation struggle to the shocking events of 2017 when Mugabe's grip on power was diminished by the very force that had propped him up for decades. The author reveals how the military's involvement has thwarted opposition players' attempts to claim power. Boldly challenging the notion that constraints solely rest on ZANU PF, this book calls attention to the shortcomings of opposition parties in navigating Zimbabwe's treacherous political landscape. Using compelling evidence and unparalleled analysis, the book is an essential read for those seeking to understand the intricate web of power manipulation and struggle that has defined Zimbabwe's political journey.

The Political Economy of Xenophobia in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2017-11-13. This book analyzes the phenomenon of xenophobia across African countries. With its roots in colonialism, which coercively created modern states through border delineation and the artificial merging and dividing of communities, xenophobia continues to be a barrier to post-colonial sustainable peace and security and socio-economic and political development in Africa. This volume critically assesses how xenophobia has impacted the three elements of political economy: state, economy, and society. Beginning with historical and theoretical analysis to put xenophobia in context, the book moves on to country specific case studies discussing the nature of xenophobia in Nigeria South Africa Zambia Ghana and Zimbabwe The chapters furthermore explore both violent and non violent manifestations of xenophobia and analyze how state responses to xenophobia affects African states economies and societies especially in those cases where xenophobia has widespread institutional support Providing a theoretical understanding of xenophobia and proffering sustainable solutions to the proliferation of xenophobia in the continent this book is of use to researchers and students interested in political science African politics peace studies security and development economics as well as policy makers working to eradicate xenophobia in Africa

Zimbabwe Will Never be a Colony Again! Mararike, Munoda, 2019-06-25 This is a thought provoking original book based on a wealth of empirical case studies of how Zimbabwe experienced illegal economic sanctions It is a study of how the humanly constructed obstructions from external remittances finance flows into the country to finance embargos or total financial blockages are deliberately created by so called powerful governments to deal with an errand country The infamous Zimbabwe Democracy Economic Recovery Act of 2001 ZDERA is part of a raft of punitive measures and discourses that the USA UK and Europe used to make the economy in the words of US s Chester Crocker scream It is the same powerful countries who allow their Multinational Corporations to loot while they impose sanctions against African governments and their peoples to make them scream The book is an insightful contribution on Africa s contemporary post colonial liberation politics of development economics It focuses on Zimbabwe as a synthesis of microcosmic study that provides accessible in depth analysis of key aspects of sanctions as a weapon of control wielded by the so called powerful governments of the Global North Zimbabwe was clobbered with post independence economic sanctions after its land reform programme which benefitted its mostly colonially dispossessed African citizens The land reform was intended as a reversal of colonial injustice and a counter restitutive measure against imperialism The book invites the reader to see power differently as compassion and the capacity to right past wrongs by protecting all and sundry from inequality and poverty Sanctions even when called targeted are non discriminatory as they affect ordinary citizens with the same ferocity and savagery as against intended target albeit often missing the target Sanctions are lethal Sanctions are a graveyard for the poor weak and vulnerable This is an idea of power that the Global North failed to grasp when they decided to punish the Mugabe government for daring to contemplate justice and restitution

Digital Activism in Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21 This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony

The Sustainability Ethic in the Management of the Physical, Infrastructural and Natural Resources of Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, 2019-05-27

Humanity has extensively exploited natural and physical resources since the Industrial Revolution in Europe A geological era now called the Anthropocene has been coined in environmental and developmental circles to mark the increased domination of humanity on Earth and its resources Today the ecological footprint on the fragile planet continues to increase Mass industrialisation like what China is doing and pushing for is one of the drivers for increased urbanisation that results in increased demand for land It is also the stimulus behind increased deforestation overfishing and pollution As the fragility of the Earth increases global bodies like the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change are pushing to reduce the Earth s temperature Human efforts to manage the problem cascade from a global to a regional to a national as well as to much localised scales Missing though are nuanced contributions at national and community levels which this book is an attempt to bridge The nagging sense of responsibility is what this book explores under the label of sustainability ethic As a case study the book examines the use of sustainability ethic in the management of the physical infrastructural and natural resources of Zimbabwe This ethic is built on pillars that include participation of people households in their pursuit for sustainable livelihoods appropriate technology tools and techniques for environmental protection It also hinges on stewardship and structures institutions policies and processes of governance and sustainability There are also the aspects of ethics laws and indigenous technical knowledge for sustainability capacity building and education plans and programmes for sustainability and population and demographic determinants processes and outcomes for sustainability The book is a timely contribution to an urgent global concern and climate change debate

Building from the Rubble Lloyd Sachikonye, Brian Raftopoulos, 2018-09-23 Building from the Rubble is the latest volume to trace the history of Zimbabwes labour movement following Keep on Knocking 1997 and Striking Back 2001 Even though it focuses on the period between 2000 2017 the analysis reviews the changes in trade unionism throughout the post colonial era For much of this period the unions faced massive challenges including state violence and repression funding limitations splits factionalism and problems of organising at factory level Perhaps the greatest challenge was the massive structural change in the economy Deindustrialisation and the informalisation of work decimated the potential membership of the unions and redefined the trajectory of the movement The growing precarity of work and the loss of formal employment placed the future of trade unions in great jeopardy

Notwithstanding these challenges the importance of the labour movement continued to resonate with workers The editors conclude that the unions needs to reconnect with their social base at the workplace and rebuild structures and alliances in the informal economy the rural sector and with residents associations and social media movements This they write is a critical post Mugabe agenda that should be seized by the labour movement at all levels from shop floor to district regional and national spaces

Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe

Shizha, Edward,2013-12-07 The role of education in human well being and social development cannot be overestimated After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980 The book is targeted at academics scholars college and university students policy makers and other stakeholders and advocates a multi pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation reconstruction and restoration are to be achieved The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe

Sustainable Development Goals for Society Vol. 2 Godwell Nhamo,David Chikodzi,Kaitano Dube,2021-06-26 This book profiles various cases that are emerging in addressing global challenges in the context of SDGs for society in the era of climate change and covers case studies of projects being undertaken to tackle biodiversity food security climate change energy and water security The book is written by 37 authors and will appeal to various stakeholders including academics working within the identified thematic areas policy planners development agencies governments and United Nations agencies The adoption of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in 2015 ushered a new era in the global development agenda as the world transitioned from the Millennium Development Goals MDGs The new era of SDGs that are all inclusive unlike the MDGs with the focus now being on ensuring human success that is predicated on environmental protection The year 2020 marked five years post the adoption of the SDGs with increased calls for stock taking of progress made amid strong calls for a decade of action to accelerate the delivery of the SDGs by 2030 These calls have been louder now given the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic which reset the global economy and increased intensity of extreme weather events across the world Since climate change has emerged as one of the biggest threats to the achievement of the SDGs there has been growing concerns on its impact on biodiversity loss and the extinction of some species There are also concerns regarding increased food insecurity at the household level in some parts of the world particularly in Asia and Africa With the demand for climate change action on the increase there have also been growing calls for the big carbon emitters to drastically cut their emissions and invest in clean energy to save the planet by following development pathways making emissions stay under the 1.5 C increase in temperature

Environmental Resilience Percy Toriro,Innocent Chirisa,2021-05-21 This book discusses the production distribution

regulatory and management frameworks that affect food in urban settings It plugs a gap in knowledge especially in the sub Saharan Africa region where food despite its critical importance has been ignored as a determinant of success in the planning and management of cities and towns The various chapters in the book demonstrate how urban populations in Zimbabwe and elsewhere have often devised ways to produce own food to supplement on their incomes Food is produced largely by way of urban agriculture or imported from the countryside and sold in both formal and informal stores and stalls The book shows how in spite of the important space food occupies in the lives of all city residents the planning and regulatory framework does not facilitate the better performance of food systems Post-Independence Development in Africa

David Mhlanga, Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2023-07-11 The book Post Independence Development in Africa Decolonisation and Transformation Prospects revisits the development debates and development realities in Africa This is achieved by offering theoretical comments about post independence development in Africa and by providing historical details pertaining to the development approaches adopted in Africa immediately after independence in the 1960s and mid 70s Sitting at the intersection of two sets of scholarly literature namely literature on development and literature on development discourses and practices in Africa the book comprises a mixture of detailed sector specific accounts of the status of development on the continent The chapters in the book also contribute to clarifying how the two strands of literature intersect using several case studies across Africa Industrial and Urban Growth Policies at the Sub-National, National, and Global Levels Benna, Umar G., 2019-02-19 Recent global shifts in population have led to the fast urbanization of Africa For Africa and the developing world choosing the right policy strategies processes and tools are essential to turning urban centers into engines of industry and economic prosperity Industrial and Urban Growth Policies at the Sub National National and Global Levels is a pivotal reference source that examines current and evolving conditions of industrial and urban policies and their relationships around the world especially between developed and developing economies While highlighting topics such as the Fourth Industrial Revolution urban policy and global common good this publication seeks to deepen and broaden the understanding of transformation in industrial development and responses to emerging urbanization processes This book is ideally designed for industrial planners entrepreneurs urban development authorities policymakers academicians researchers and students
