

AN EXAMPLE OF AN ANECDOTE:

My earliest slumber party takes me back to the night of an impending thunderstorm and my mother announcing, "Get your sleeping bags!" My brother and sisters and I carried our no-nonsense sleeping bags, rolled and tied with strings, to the living room. My twin sister arranged our pillows to touch. We formed our circle of sleeping bags against the storm and counted "Mississippi's" to determine the thunder's distance. We buried our faces when lightening lit up the walls, and after the storm passed, we fell asleep to our collective breathing and the certainty that no harm would come if we stuck together.

The topic sentence establishes the focus of the paragraph: to tell the story of the writer's earliest memory of a family slumber party

The writer provides supporting details to help readers imagine this slumber party. Notice how the details provide the who, what, when, where, how and why of this moment.

The writer ends the paragraph with a closing sentence that helps the reader think more deeply about the topic sentence by offering a reflection on why this moment in her life is significant.

Civic Storytelling Florian Fuchs,2023-05-23 A deep history of storytelling as a civic agency recalibrating literature s political role for the twenty first century Why did short narrative forms like the novella fable and fairy tale suddenly emerge around 1800 as genres symptomatic of literature s role in life and society In order to explain their rapid ascent to such importance Florian Fuchs identifies an essential role of literature a role traditionally performed within classical civic discourse of storytelling by looking at new or updated forms of this civic practice in modernity Fuchs's focus in this groundbreaking book is on the fate of topical speech on what is exchanged between participants in argument or conversation as opposed to rhetorical speech which emanates from and ensures political authority He shows how after the decline of the Ars topica in the eighteenth century various forms of literary speech took up the role of topical speech that Aristotle had originally identified Thus his book outlines a genealogy of various literary short forms from fable fairy tale and novella to twenty first century video storytelling that attempted on both high and low levels of culture to exercise again the social function of topical speech Some of the specific texts analyzed include the novellas of Theodor Storm and the novella like lettre de cachet proverbial fictions of Gustave Flaubert and Gottfried Keller the fairy tale as rediscovered by Vladimir Propp and Walter Benjamin the epiphanies of James Joyce and the video narratives of Hito Steyerl Anecdotal Modernity James Dorson, Florian Sedlmeier, MaryAnn Snyder-Körber, Birte Wege, 2020-12-16 Modernity is made and unmade by the anecdotal Conceived as a literary genre a narrative element of criticism and most crucially a mode of historiography the anecdote illuminates the convergences as well as the fault lines cutting across modern practices of knowledge production The volume explores uses of the anecdotal in exemplary case studies from the threshold of the early modern to the present Literary Anecdotes of the Eighteenth Century; John Nichols, 1814
