

Animal Farm Essay

Animal Farm was purposefully written as fable for readers to learn about the evils of totalitarianism in society. It was specifically written about the power struggle in the Soviet Union after the Russian Revolution of 1917 between Joseph Stalin and Leon Trotsky. George Orwell portrayed life in the Soviet Union as oppressive as and no better than life before the Revolution.

After reading Animal Farm, you are to write an essay over ONE (1) of the following questions to show that you understand the main ideas of the book:

- A) Compare and contrast the reign of Napoleon at the end of the book similar to that of Mr. Jones at the beginning.
- B) How does life on the farm change for the animals from the immediate aftermath of the revolution?
- C) Describe the differences between Snowball and Napoleon in terms of their types of rule, their treatment of the other animals, their view of work on the farm, and the role this rivalry continues throughout the book, even when Snowball is gone.
- D) How are language, propoganda, and truth used by Napoleon and Squealer to control the animals on the farm?
- E) What role does violence and terror play in Napoleon's control, rule, and power?
- F) Write a continuation of the novel beginning at the point the novel ends. Could a new revolutionary leader appear? What might a new society look like if Napoleon were overthrown?

Whatever question you choose, you need to include numerous quotes from the book and cite specific examples and connections to the book and the characters. This shows that you truly understand the book and its message.
