

ANIMAL RIGHTS

Some people believe that animals should be treated in the same way humans are and have similar rights, whereas others think that it is more important to use them as we desire for food and medical research. This essay will discuss both points of view.

With regard to the exploitation of animals, people believe it is acceptable for several reasons. Firstly, they think that humans are the most important beings on the planet, and everything must be done to ensure human survival. If this means experimenting on animals so that we can fight and find cures for diseases, then this takes priority over animal suffering. Furthermore, it is believed by some that animals do not feel pain or loss as humans do, so if we have to kill animals for food or other uses, then this is morally acceptable.

However, I do not believe these arguments stand up to scrutiny. To begin, it has been shown on numerous occasions by secret filming in laboratories via animal rights groups that animals feel as much pain as humans do, and they suffer when they are kept in cages for long periods. Well you curious about how they feel? Lock yourselves in cages! In addition, a substantial amount of animal research is done for cosmetics, not to find cures for diseases, so this is unnecessary. Finally, it has also been proven that humans can get all the nutrients and vitamins that they need from green vegetables and fruit. Therefore, again, having to kill animals for food is not an adequate argument.

Then again, you still see videos and pictures which are torturing to the bare eyes. Videos and pictures of animal cruelty. Its great that there are people out there trying to convert us omnivores to be pescatarians. What is pescatarian you may ask? Pescatarians are are similar to vegetarians just that they eat fishes. There! My point is made. People neglect the fishes. ' Oh theyre just fishes' '

Sailing with Noah Jeffrey P. Bonner, 2013-06-03 Written by the president of the nation s number one zoo Sailing with Noah is an intensely personal behind the scenes look at modern zoos Jeffrey P Bonner who was trained as an anthropologist and came to the zoo world quite by accident shares some of the most compelling stories ever told about contemporary zoos The stories jump between zoos in different cities and between countries on different continents Some are fun and funny Others are sad even tragic Pete Hoskins the director of the Philadelphia Zoo is in bed sound asleep when his phone rings There s been a fire in the World of Primates he is told You ve got to get over here Whatever he has been dreaming it is nothing like the nightmare he will find now that he is awake They re all gone They re all gone All of the animals in the building the gorillas the lemurs the orangutans and the gibbons all twenty three of them are dead Written in a lively accessible style Sailing with Noah explores the role of zoos in today s society and their future as institutions of education conservation and research Along the way Bonner relates a variety of true stories about animals and those who care for them or abuse them offering his perspective on heavily publicized incidents and describing less well known events with compassion and humor in turn. By bringing the stories of the animals' lives before us, Bonner gives them a voice. He strongly believes that zoos must act for living things and he argues that conservation is a shared responsibility of all mankind. This book helps us to understand why biodiversity is important and what it means to be a steward of life on earth. From the day-to-day aspects of caring for some of the world's most exotic creatures to the role of zoos as field conservation organizations saving wild things in wild places, this book takes the reader on an incredible journey, a journey that begins within the zoo and continues around the globe. Everyone from zoo visitors to animal lovers to professional conservationists, the young and old alike, will be fascinated by this extraordinary book.
