

Animal Homes

(sung to "On Top of Old Smoky")

On top of a mountain,
Or under the sea,
There are so many places
Where creatures may be.

Alone in a desert,
Or grouped on a farm,
Or tucked in a tree trunk
Away from all harm.

On bright, sunny grasslands,
Or in a dark cave,
In jungles and forests,
Where all must be brave.

On ice in the Arctic,
Or holed underground,
There are so many places
Where creatures are found!

Laureen Reynolds

Animals Habitat Poem For Kids:

Fun Animal Rhymes for Children Riya Sharr, 2011-01-01 Fun Animal Rhymes for Children is a delightful book that introduces young readers to the fascinating world of animals through playful rhymes and vibrant illustrations. Written from the perspective of the animals themselves, the first person narrative allows children to experience their lives, making the information engaging and memorable. The rhymes teach fun facts about animal behaviors, diets, and habitats, such as how a giraffe uses its long neck to reach high branches or how a frog's croak is part of its mating ritual. The colorful illustrations complement the poems, bringing the animals to life and stimulating imagination. This book also fosters empathy for animals and encourages environmental stewardship. In addition to its educational value, the rhyming text helps improve early literacy skills by enhancing phonemic awareness. Fun Animal Rhymes for Children is a wonderful tool for sparking curiosity and appreciation for animals, making learning both entertaining and informative. Poems for Sight-word Practice Laureen Reynolds, 2004

Environment Poetry Andrew Frolich, 2012-10-19 This is a great new resource that provides a selection of poems, lesson plans, and worksheets designed to be used by Key Stage 2 teachers in literacy lessons. The poems and lesson plans are based on a variety of environmental issues, such as recycling, dramatic weather changes, and environmental disasters like oil spills. The book contains 24 lessons with cross-curricular links to support learning in other subject areas. Their interest coincides with the need for schools to raise awareness of environmental concerns and to become more sustainable organisations.

Ecology and Literatures in English Françoise Besson, 2018-12-14 In all latitudes, writers hold out a mirror, leading the reader to awareness by telling real or imaginary stories about people of good will who try to save what can be saved and about animals showing humans the way to follow. Such tales argue that, in spite of all destructions and tragedies, if we are just aware of and connected to the real world around us—to the blade of grass at our feet and the star above our heads—there is hope in a reconciliation with the Earth. This may start with the emergence or rather the return of a nonverbal language, restoring the connection between human beings and the nonhuman world through a form of communication beyond verbalization. Through a journey in Anglophone literature, with examples taken from Aboriginal, African, American, English, Canadian, and Indian works, this book shows the role played by literature in the protection of the planet. It argues that literature reveals the fundamental idea that everything is connected and that it is only when most people are aware of this connection that the world will change. Exactly as a tree is connected with all the animal life in and around it, texts show that nothing should be separated. From Shakespeare's theatre to ecopoetics, from travel writing to detective novels, from children's books to novels, all literary genres show that literature responds to the violence destroying lands, men, and nonhuman creatures whose voices can be heard through texts.
