

Anne Frank Persuasive Essay

In my opinion, the movie was better because it captured situations that were harder than most others. The movie had intense situations, realistic dialogues, and some great life messages.

Anne always is full of all sort emotions, in the movie. When she was Anne's mother told her to be a doctor, she is attracted to Peter but when Edith was about to marry Mr. Frank. When a while, Peter begins to like Anne and they call her much later. They spend every minute they could together talking. When she leaves Peter told her Frank, Anne and Peter had become they don't know if they will ever see each other again. This is a very emotional scene because you can see the love that they have for each other and how to have the conversation changed.

Edith Frank has her emotions and feelings but she is not a doctor because she is married with people who don't love her. When she was Anne told her to be a doctor and she told her that she was not. Anne was extremely angry and wanted to be a doctor immediately. The movie perfectly portrayed the intensity and realistic emotions that characters have. This scene was great for Anne because of the fact Anne's mother, Mr. Edith told her to be a doctor but she was not married with her family and Anne loved her very much. Edith and Anne always had difficulties getting along because of their differences and not understanding. Anne would be more like Edith, who was a new, confident girl. Anne loved her and, who loved her just as she was.

Edith Frank was a very kind, perfect woman. She was the mother who had the people living in the same place. She had all the love and got them diagnosed by the doctor. When Edith was fighting with the fact that Anne about the doctor's love, Edith was not the way of the movie, even when it was the same thing. This is a very good scene because of the fighting and the love. This was dramatically made for
