Baylen, Karla. "Poverty among Children: The Impact and Evolution of Child Benefits." In The Question on Commitment: The Rights of Children, edited by Mae Alvar and Brian Howe, 23-45. Waterloo, ON: Ontario University Press, 2009.

Karla Baylen works on a study of different government documents, including her own research as a policy analyst involving the different programs of child benefits. She presents some logical assumptions that support the idea that all members of the society need to contribute towards the upbringing of children. Her comparison on child poverty is a valuable wake-up to anybody who thinks that the government is doing a good job in protecting children.

Krooner, Bob, and Rodney Beau. "Poverty among Children and Structure in Families, 1983-2000." Comparative Family Studies Journal 36, no. 5 (2005): 323-337.

As professors in Psychology, Krooner and Beau identify the demographics of families that are impoverished. Drawing on the annual consumer finances, both authors take into consideration whether the family had either one or two parents, the age, as well as the number of children. They analyze the poverty rates among children based on these demographic factors.

Miranda, Mallen. "Understanding Children Poverty", 34-56. Cincinnati, OH: ABA University Press, 2009.

Mallen Miranda outlines the costs, development and benefits offered by the conservative government in favor of the children. However, in this work, he depends heavily on his personal work, being the sole author. He could further take this work a level higher by accepting the analyses and perspectives of others.
