A Crash Course in Art History from Prehistoric to the Present

THIRD EDITION

Note Gaury Veil.

Leonardo pioneered sfumato, or the layering of thin, translucent glazes "in the manner of smoke without lines or borders."

Great Eye Contact.

Contrast with coy smile helps create the mystery.

Busy Background.

Jagged peaks, winding roads, receding waters. Lines lead to point behind Mona's head, called "single-vanishing-point perspective."

Leonardo Da Vinci.

Painter, sculptor, architect, engineer, inventor, scientist. Good idea man but bad on follow-through. Most works unfinished. Career total of only 34 paintings.

Painted 1503-07.

Oil on panel. World's most famous painting. Now appearing under glass at Louvre.

Before Mona:

Paintings were frescoes on walls, miniatures, or panels on furniture.

After:

Framed easel paintings displayed on stands or hung on walls.

Portraits Before Mona:
Idealized deities.

After:

Realistic "full-bodied" human beings.

Enigmatic Smile.

Mystery for the ages. Singers, musicians, jesters performed to keep Mona "full of merriment" while posing.

Great Hands.

Leonardo studied anatomy. Dissected bodies to reproduce human form precisely.

Who Is She?

Most likely historical nonentity. Probably Florence merchant Francesco del Giocondo's wife.

librarians help young adults grow into the kind of independent readers and thinkers who will flourish at college American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse J. Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion. He demonstrates that museums, their contents and their manners of display, are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums. The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs. In addition to these primarily art museums, Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum. American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication, art history and museology. It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C. S. Peirce. In so doing, it demonstrates that museum buildings, the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence.

Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion J. Donald Ragsdale, 2020-07-13 Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion is an assessment of the visual persuasiveness of art museums. It demonstrates that museums are as capable of influence as speeches or advertisements are and that an awareness of this influence provides an insight into museums' cultural roles. The book considers a diverse array of institutions ranging from such national cultural icons as the Louvre, the British Museum and the Prado to museums of partisan advocacy such as the Centre Georges Pompidou, the Tate Modern and the Museo Nacional Centro Arte de Reina Sofia. The museums' architectural significance, the importance of their collections and the persuasiveness of their exhibition designs are the bases for assessment. Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion is an important extension of theories of persuasion and visual communication to art, art history and museology. It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotics of C. S. Peirce to demonstrate that museum buildings, the art within them and the spaces used for display all may be thought of as ways of influencing society. Jenny Sockey, 2002-06-01
