The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodernism Brian McHale,2015-06-26 This Introduction surveys the full spectrum of postmodern culture from architecture and visual art to fiction poetry and drama Postcolonising the Medieval Image Eva Frojmovic,Catherine E. Karkov,2017-03-16 The concept of this book involves the application of postcolonial theories and or concepts used in postcolonial and cognate studies to the field of medieval European art including Byzantine art and Byzantine art in Asia Minor The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature Brian McHale,Len Platt,2016-03-22 The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature offers a comprehensive survey of the field from its emergence in the mid twentieth century to the present day It offers an unparalleled examination of all facets of postmodern writing that helps readers to understand how fiction and poetry literary criticism feminist theory mass media and the visual and fine arts have characterized the historical development of postmodernism Covering subjects from the Cold War and countercultures to the Latin American Boom and magic realism this History traces the genealogy of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in current scholarship It also presents new critical approaches to postmodern literature that will serve the needs of students and specialists alike Written by a host of leading scholars this History will not only engage readers in contemporary debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin,2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists
