Art Versus War:

Joint Operational Warfare Milan N. Vego, 2009 Smallholder farmers and pastoralists fulfil an invaluable yet undervalued role in conserving biodiversity They act as guardians of locally adapted livestock breeds that can make use of even marginal environments under tough climatic conditions and therefore are a crucial resource for food security But in addition by sustaining animals on natural vegetation and as part of local ecosystems these communities also make a significant contribution to the conservation of wild biodiversity and of cultural landscapes This publication provides a glimpse into the often intricate knowledge systems that pastoralists and smallholder farmers have developed for the management of their breeds in specific production systems and it also describes the multitude of threats and challenges these often marginalized communities have to cope with

Defamiliarizing Japan's Asia-Pacific War W. Puck Brecher, Michael W. Myers, 2019-10-31 This wide ranging collection seeks to reassess conventional understanding of Japan's Asia Pacific War by defamiliarizing and expanding the rhetorical narrative Its nine chapters diverse in theme and method are united in their goal to recover a measured historicity about the conflict by either introducing new areas of knowledge or reinterpreting existing ones Collectively they cast doubt on the war as familiar and recognizable compelling readers to view it with fresh eyes Following an introduction that problematizes timeworn narratives about a unified Japan and its illegal war or race war early chapters on the destruction of Japan's diplomatic records and government interest in an egalitarian health care policy before and after the war oblige us to question selective histories and moral judgments about wartime Japan The discussion then turns to artistic cultural production and self determination specifically to Osaka rakugo performers who used comedy to contend with state oppression and to the role of women in creating care packages for soldiers abroad Other chapters cast doubt on well trod stereotypes Japan's lack of pragmatism in its diplomatic relations with neutral nations and its irrational and fatalistic military leadership and examine resistance to the war by a prominent Japanese Christian intellectual The volume concludes with two nuanced responses to race in wartime Japan one maintaining the importance of racial categories while recognizing the performance of Japaneseness the other observing that communities often reflected official government policies through nationality rather than race Contrasting findings like these underscore the need to ask new questions and fill old gaps in our understanding of a historical event that after more than seventy years remains as provocative and divisive as ever Defamiliarizing Japan's Asia Pacific War will find a ready audience among World War II historians as well as specialists in war and society social history and the growing fields of material culture and civic history

Ezra Pound and the Visual Arts Ezra Pound, 1980-11 A gathering of Ezra Pound's writing criticism and reviews on art

Necessity of Artspeak Roy Harris, 2003-05-01 Are contemporary art theorists and critics speaking a language that has lost its meaning Is it still based on concepts and values that are long out of date Does anyone know what the function of the arts is in modern society Roy Harris breaks new ground with his linguistic approach to the key issues He situates those issues within the long running debate about the arts and their place in society which goes back to the Classical period in ancient Greece Contributors to the debate included some of the most celebrated artists and philosophers of their day Plato Aristotle Leonardo Kant Hegel Wagner Baudelaire Zola Delacroix but none of these eminent figures or their supporters provided a reasoned overview examining the multilingual development of Western artspeak as a whole Nor did they develop any explicit account of the relationship between the arts and language The Necessity of Artspeak shows for the first time that what have usually been considered problems of aesthetics and artistic justification often have their source in the linguistic assumptions underlying the terms and arguments presented It also shows how artspeak has been and continues to be manipulated to serve the interests of particular social groups and agendas Until the semantics of artspeak is more widely understood the public will continue to be taken in by the latest fads and fashions that propagandists of the art world promote

Submarine Warfare, Offensive and Defensive John Sanford Barnes, 1869 Art vs. TV Francesco

Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange Law, Ethics, and the Visual Arts

John Henry Merryman, Albert Edward Elsen, Stephen K. Urice, 2007-01-01 This book describes the collisions between the art world and the law with a critical eye through a combination of primary source materials excerpts from professional and art journals and extensive textual notes Topics analysed include the fate of works of art in wartime the international trade in stolen and illegally exported cultural property artistic freedom censorship and state support for art and artists copyright droit moral and droit de suite the artist's professional life and death collectors in the art market income and estate taxation charitable donations and works of art and art museums and their collections The authors are recognised experts in the field who have defined the canon in many aspects of art law Englisch-Deutsches und Deutsch-Englisches Wörterbuch Joseph
