anew on what actually defines an instrument and to develop a series of basic questions to determine what an instrument is which actions does the instrument incorporate which actions does the instrument make possible when do the objects of examination themselves become instruments what skills are required to use an instrument which skills does it produce With its combination of new theoretical models and historical case studies its detailed demonstration of the mutual influence of art and science with the instrument as the point of intersection this volume enters new territory It is of great value for all those interested in the history of our perception of instruments Besides the editors the authors of the papers are J rg Jochen Berns Olaf Breidbach Georges Didi Huberman Peter Galison Sybille Kr mer Dieter Mersch Hans J rg Rheinberger Wilhelm Schmidt Biggemann and Otto Sibum Bulletin of the British Museum (Natural History). ,1982 Shakespeare without
