Andes Michael Jacobs, 2011-05-01 For centuries the Andes have caught the imagination of travelers inspiring fear and wonder The groundbreaking scientist Alexander von Humboldt claimed that everything here is grander and more majestic than in the Swiss Alps the Pyrenees the Carpathians the Apennines and all other mountains I have known Rivalled in height only by the Himalayas and stretching more than 4 500 miles the sheer immensity of the Andes is matched by its concentration of radically contrasting scenery and climates and the rich and diverse cultures of the people who live there In this remarkable book travel writer Michael Jacobs journeys across seven different countries from the balmy Caribbean to the inhospitable islands of the Tierra del Fuego through the relics of ancient civilizations and the remnants of colonial rule retracing the footsteps of previous travelers His route begins in Venezuela following the path of the great nineteenth century revolutionary Sim n Bol var but soon diverges to include accounts from sources as varied as Humboldt the young Charles Darwin and Bol var s extraordinary and courageous mistress Manuela Saenz On his way Jacobs uncovers the stories of those who have shared his fascination and discovers the secrets of a region steeped in history science and myth World History: Cultures, States, and Societies to 1500 Eugene Berger, George Israel, Charlotte Miller, Brian Parkinson, Andrew Reeves, Nadejda Williams, 2023-11-27 World History Cultures States and Societies to 1500 is an insightful collection that traverses the rich tapestry of human history up to the medieval period Through an array of literary styles the anthology captures the complexity and diversity of ancient and early medieval civilizations The works in this volume offer a profound exploration of global interconnectedness long before the advent of modern globalization Standout pieces provide introspective views into the cultural mores societies and governmental structures of influential civilizations such as the Mesopotamians Egyptians and Mayans while elucidating overarching themes of societal evolution and cross cultural exchanges The anthology s contributors including Eugene Berger George Israel Charlotte Miller Brian Parkinson Andrew Reeves and Nadejda Williams are distinguished historians and scholars whose diverse backgrounds and expertise are woven into the narrative Each author draws upon historical cultural and literary movements that shaped the ages they dissect bringing a multidimensional perspective to this comprehensive compilation The collective contributions underscore the complexities of each culture and state resulting in a harmonized yet multifaceted record of world history that aligns with contemporary scholarly efforts to present a more interconnected view of early human societies This anthology is an indispensable resource for readers eager to dive into the vast expanse of world history and experience the undulating dialogue of civilizations through a single volume It offers a rare opportunity to explore a confluence of perspectives and styles illuminating a unified narrative while celebrating the diversity intrinsic to historical study By engaging with these works readers will enrich their understanding of how disparate societies have shaped and have been shaped by the world we inhabit today

Disability and Art History Ann Millett-Gallant, Elizabeth Howie, 2016-10-26 This is the first book of its kind to feature interdisciplinary art history and disability studies Moving away from the medical model of disability that is often scrutinized in art history the book considers the social model and representations of disabled figures Topics addressed include visible versus invisible impairments scientific anthropological and vernacular images of disability and the implications of looking staring versus gazing Disability and Art History explores ways in which art responds to envisions and at times stereotypes and pathologizes disability and aims to contextualize disability historically as well as in terms of medicine literature and visual culture

Weaving Abstraction in Ancient and Modern Art Iria Candela, Joanne Pillsbury, 2023-11-01 Expanding the understanding of textile and fiber arts this edition of the Bulletin features two distinct bodies of work that are intimately connected despite being separated by hundreds of years Placing ancient Andean textiles from South America by unknown artists in conversation with works by global modern practitioners such as Anni Albers Sheila Hicks Lenore Tawney and Olga de Amaral Weaving Abstraction in Ancient and Modern Art shows how both traditions harnessed the structure of the loom to create dynamic geometric designs The 50 extraordinary pieces in this volume span over 2000 years and illustrate weaving's complex and varied ways of conveying meaning from stunning iconography to bold structural choices In highlighting the aesthetic and cultural choices of both ancient and modern artists this publication elevates textile arts beyond mere ornament to assert their role in the history of art past and present
