Art Of War Illustrations And Commentary By Andrew Kelly:

The Great War and the British Empire Michael J.K. Walsh, Andrekos Varnava, 2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth's surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history's first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica

Film and the American Presidency Jeff Menne, Christian B. Long, 2015-02-20 The contention of Film and the American Presidency is that over the twentieth century the cinema has been a silent partner in setting the parameters of what we might call the presidential imaginary This volume surveys the partnership in its longevity placing stress on especially iconic presidents such as Lincoln and FDR The contributions to this collection probe the rich interactions between these high institutions of culture and politics Hollywood and the presidency and argue that not only did Hollywood acting become an idiom for presidential style but that Hollywood early on understood its own identity through the presidency's peculiar mix of national epic and unified protagonist Additionally they contend that studios often made their films to sway political outcomes that the performance of presidential personae has been constrained by the kinds of bodies for so long white and male that have occupied the office such that presidential embodiment obscures the body politic and that Hollywood and the presidency may finally be nothing more than two privileged figures of media age power

Kentucky by Design Andrew Kelly, 2015-07-31 The Index of American Design was one of the most significant undertakings of the Federal Art Project the visual arts arm of the Works Progress Administration Part of President Franklin D Roosevelt's New Deal this ambitious initiative set out to discover and document an authentic American style in everyday objects The curators of the Index combed the country for art of the machine age from carved carousel horses to engraved powder horns to woven coverlets created by artisans for practical use In their search for a true American artistic identity they also sought furniture designed by regional craftsmen laboring in isolation from European traditions Kentucky by Design offers the first comprehensive examination of the objects from the Bluegrass State featured in this historic venture It showcases a wide array of offerings including architecture furniture ceramics musical instruments textiles clothing and glass and metalworks The Federal Art Project played an important role in documenting and preserving the work of Shaker artists from the Pleasant Hill and South Union communities and their creations are exhibited in this illuminating catalog Beautifully illustrated with both the original watercolor depictions and contemporary art quality photographs of the works this book is a lavish exploration of the Commonwealth's distinctive contribution to American culture and modern design Features contributions from Jean M Burks Erika Doss Jerrold Hirsch Lauren Churilla Larrie Currie Michelle Ganz Tommy Hines Lee Kogan Ron Pen
