The second edition of Rotenberg s popular guide to college teaching includes additional material on teaching in a digital environment universal design and teaching diverse students As in the first edition the book provides a hands on quick start guide to the complexities of the college classroom for instructors in their first five years of teaching independently The chapters survey the existing literature on how to effectively teach young adults offering specific solutions to the most commonly faced classroom dilemmas The author a former department chair and award winning instructor encourages the new teacher to support their students as individual learners who are engaged in a program of study beyond their individual class A focus on the choices made during the design of the course helps the instructor coordinate their class with a department or college curriculum An extensive discussion of the relationship between classroom design and class size as well as tips of assessment and grading enable the new instructor to better handle the challenges of contemporary college classrooms Art 5211, Craft Fair Primer Michael Scott,1984 Arts, Crafts and Customs of Our Neighbor Republics Emilie Dew Sandsten Lassalle,1943 Bazaars and Fair Ladies Beverly Gordon,1998 Tracing their development from the early 1800s to the present day Gordon shows how women s fairs have reflected and influenced American culture including styles of display and presentation forms of public entertainment attitudes about consumption and commodities and perceptions of other cultures and of the past Arts, Crafts, and Customs of Our Neighbor Republics ,1942 More Than Curiosities Susan L. Meyn,2001-01-01 Beginning in the 1920s anthropologists traders and other admirers of traditional Native American cultures appalled by the degradation of fine crafts into tourist trinkets began cultivating a fine arts market for indigenous textiles jewelry ceramics and basketry In More Than Curiosities Susan Labry Meyn explores how this grassroots revival led to the founding of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board in 1935 Meyn demonstrates how the Board and its activities such as development and marketing of quality arts and crafts targeted loan programs and the creation of artisans cooperatives not only aided in the development of a source of sustained income for Native artists but also were pivotal in overcoming the larger Euro American indifference toward Native culture Under the leadership of Rene d Harmoncourt the Board facilitated cross cultural understanding and provided the mechanisms that allowed Native American artists to revive traditional practices and adapt them to an Anglo market Meyn s novel study will become an invaluable contribution to scholars of the period artists and anyone interested in Native American studies Mountain Sisters Helen M. Lewis,Monica Apple,2014-07-11 Monica Appleby and Helen Lewis reveal the largely untold story of women who stood up to the Church and joined Appalachians in their struggle for social justice Their poignant story of how faith compassion and persistence overcame obstacles to progress in Appalachia is a fascinating example of how a collaborative and creative learning community fosters strong voices Mountain Sisters is a prophetic first person account of the history of American

Catholicism the war on poverty and the influence of the turbulent 1960s on the cultural and religious communities of Appalachia Founded in 1941 The Glenmary Sisters embraced a calling to serve rural Appalachian communities where few Catholics resided The sisters many of them seeking alternatives to the choices available to most women during this time zealously pursued their duties but soon became frustrated with the rules and restrictions of the Church Outmoded doctrine even styles of dress made it difficult for them to interact with the very people they hoped to help In 1967 after many unsuccessful attempts to persuade the Church to ease its requirements some seventy Sisters left the security of convent life Over forty of these women formed a secular service group FOCIS Federation of Communities in Service Mountain Sisters is their story
