As Above Religion:

India's Agony Over Religion Gerald James Larson, 1995-01-01 Presents the contemporary religious crisis in India providing historical perspective and focusing on the crises in Punjab Kashmir and Ayodhya Religions as Brands

Jean-Claude Usunier, Jörg Stolz, 2016-04-01 During the twentieth century religion has gone on the market place Churches and religious groups are forced to sell god in order to be attractive to religious consumers More and more religions are seen as brands that have to be recognizable to their members and the general public What does this do to religion How do religious groups and believers react What is the consequence for society as a whole This book brings together some of the best international specialists from marketing sociology and economics in order to answer these and similar questions The interdisciplinary book treats new developments in three fields that have hitherto evolved rather independently the commoditization of religion the link between religion and consumer behavior and the economics of religion By combining and cross fertilizing these three fields the book shows just what happens when religions become brands Household and Family Religion in Antiquity John Bodel, Saul M. Olyan, 2012-02-15 The first book to explore the religious dimensions of the family and the household in ancient Mediterranean and West Asian antiquity Advances our understanding of household and familial religion as opposed to state sponsored or civic temple cults Reconstructs domestic and family religious practices in Egypt Greece Rome Israel Mesopotamia Ugarit Emar and Philistia Explores many household rituals such as providing for ancestral spirits and petitioning of a household's patron deities or of spirits associated with the house itself Examines lifecycle rituals from pregnancy and birth to maturity old age death and beyond Looks at religious practices relating to the household both within the home itself and other spaces such as at extramural tombs and local sanctuaries Circular of Information of the Bureau of Education, for George Gary Bush, Sidney Sherwood, 1900 The Founding Fathers and the Debate Over Religion in Revolutionary America Matthew Harris, Thomas Kidd, 2012 Whether America was founded as a Christian nation or as a secular republic is one of the most fiercely debated questions in American history Historians Matthew Harris and Thomas Kidd offer an authoritative examination of the essential documents needed to understand this debate The texts included in this volume writings and speeches from both well known and obscure early American thinkers show that religion played a prominent yet fractious role in the era of the American Revolution In their personal beliefs the Founders ranged from profound skeptics like Thomas Paine to traditional Christians like Patrick Henry Nevertheless most of the Founding Fathers rallied around certain crucial religious principles including the idea that people were created equal the belief that religious freedom required the disestablishment of state backed denominations the necessity of virtue in a republic and the role of Providence in guiding the affairs of nations Harris and Kidd show that through the struggles of war and the framing of the Constitution Americans sought to reconcile their dedication to religious vitality with their commitment to religious freedom Religious Dialogue as Hermeneutics Kuruvila Pandikattu, 2001 Key Thinkers in Religion and Environment Lucas F. Johnston, 2024-07-01 Key Thinkers in Religion and Environment provides a theoretical foundation for scholarship related to the intersection of religions natures and cultures across disciplines The text introduces students to the major names theoretical issues and methodological orientations of the field while giving professors maximum freedom to insert case studies and examples as they wish Students will come away with an understanding of the most important scholars their theoretical contributions and the scholarly conundrums with which they wrestled The book includes figures who are foundational to the field of religious studies more broadly foregrounding key themes in their works which highlight the nature in of their argumentation whilst also highlighting the voices of women and people of color The thinkers come from a range of fields including religious studies philosophy anthropology sociology American Indian studies ethology agroecology theology and environmental history demonstrating the importance and impact of interdisciplinary research The book also offers a theoretical orientation which illuminates methodological and theoretical deficits in religious studies more generally whilst opening new avenues for thinking about environmental ethics It is a must read for all students and researchers of religion and the environment
