Merali,S. Sayyid

Ashura 2013 In Uk:

Social Media in Iran David M. Faris, Babak Rahimi, 2015-11-20 Social Media in Iran is the first book to tell the complex story of how and why the Iranian people including women homosexuals dissidents artists and even state actors use social media technology and in doing so create a contentious environment wherein new identities and realities are constructed Drawing together emerging and established scholars in communication culture and media studies this volume considers the role of social media in Iranian society particularly the time during and after the controversial 2009 presidential election a watershed moment in the postrevolutionary history of Iran While regional specialists may find studies on specific themes useful the aim of this volume is to provide broad narratives of actor based conceptions of media technology an approach that focuses on the experiential and social networking processes of digital practices in the information era extended beyond cultural specificities Students and scholars of regional and media studies will find this volume rich with empirical and theoretical insights on the subject of how technologies shape political and everyday life

Countering Islamophobia in Europe Ian Law, Amina Easat-Daas, Arzu Merali, S. Sayyid, 2019-05-29 The treatment of Muslims is the touchstone of contemporary European racism across its many nations and localities We make a definitive case for two arguments in this book firstly the recognition of the accelerating and pervasive nature of Islamophobia in this region and secondly recognition that this process is being can be and will be challenged by counter narratives that make the claim for Muslim humanity plurality space and justice This book draws on new evidence from eight national contexts to provide an innovative kit of counter narratives which were presented and well received at the European Parliament in September 2018 and subsequently launched across Europe in national workshops in selected states A synergy between leading academic researchers and the Islamic Human Rights Commission Countering Islamophobia in Europe will be of value to EU institutions governments and policy makers NGOs and media organisations as well as researchers of multiculturalism Islam Muslims and immigration

Ethnographies of Islam Dupret Baudouin Dupret, 2013-09-23 This comparative approach to the various uses of the ethnographic method in research about Islam in anthropology and other social sciences is particularly relevant in the current climate Political discourses and stereotypical media portrayals of Islam as a monolithic civilisation have prevented the emergence of cultural pluralism and individual freedom Such discourses are countered by the contributors who show the diversity and plurality of Muslim societies and promote a reflection on how the ethnographic method allows the description representation and analysis of the social and cultural complexity of Muslim societies in the discourse of anthropology

Ahmad Qābel and Contemporary Islamic Thought Lloyd Ridgeon, 2023-04-06 Ahmad Q bel 1954 2012 was one of the key figures in the New Religious Thinking trend of reformist thought whose radical views were some of the most daring of his generation seeking to rationalize and modernize Islamic law In this comprehensively researched and accessibly written book Lloyd Ridgeon offers an original examination of Q bel s writings including his seminal work Shari at e Aql ni Rational Shariah

Throughout his career Q bel crossed many political and religious redlines resulting in several prison terms and hastening his premature death while under hospital arrest Chapters covering topics from jurisprudence and politics to gender relations and society unravel Q bel s worldview introducing and illuminating his work for all readers With extended translations from Q bel s compositions including two whole chapters from Shari at e Aql ni Ridgeon offers the necessary context to understand the resounding significance of Q bel s ideas and arguments

Terrorism, 2013-2015 Edward Mickolus,2016-08-22 This second comprehensive chronology of international terrorist attacks covers three eventful years during which the Islamic State supplanted al Qaeda as the most active well financed and well armed terrorist group worldwide Domestic and international incidents around the globe are covered outlining several trends and exploding a number of media myths The author examines the enigmas of contemporary terrorist behavior and offers indicators and predictions to watch for in the coming years

Religious Tourism and Pilgrimage Management, 2nd Edition Razaq Raj, Kevin A Griffin,2015-09-24 Within the past 10 years Religious Tourism has seen both economic and education sector growth on a global scale This book addresses the central role of religious tourism and interrelationships with other aspects of pilgrimage management It provides practical applications models and illustrations and looks at secular and sacred spaces on a global stage The second edition sees the introduction of a new structure and the addition of new international case studies It is an invaluable reference for academics students and practitioners and is a timely text on the future of faith based tourism and pilgrimage

Blood and Glory Steve Hawkins,2014-04 Steve Hawkins challenges us to see the full power of the cross in his new book Blood and Glory From our first moment of salvation he writes the cross will always be where our old lives are exchanged for Jesus s new life We never grow up from our need for the cross s life altering power Blood and Glory will help you keep this truth grounded in your life It will show you how to Stay rooted in Christ Retain your spiritual balance as you seek His gifts Pursue His supernatural power with a clear vision If you desire to live intimately with Jesus and partner with Him in changing lives across the globe you ll need a full view of the cross Blood and Glory will show you why the abundant life Jesus promised begins and ends at the cross

Cinema of the Arab World Terri Ginsberg, Chris Lippard,2020-03-03 This volume engages new films and modes of scholarly research in Arab cinema and older often neglected films and critical topics while theorizing their structural relationship to contemporary developments in the Arab world The volume considers the relationship of Arab cinema to transnational film production distribution and exhibition in turn recontextualizing the works of acknowledged as well as new directorial figures and country specific phenomena New documentary and experimental practices are referenced and critiqued while commercial cinema is covered both as an industrial product and as one of several instances of contestation The volume thus showcases the breadth and depth of Arab film culture and its multilayered connections to local conditions regional affiliations and the tendencies and aesthetics of global cinema

Hezbollah Joseph Daher,2016-10-20 Hezbollah provides a new grounded analysis of the controversial and misunderstood Lebanese party

Where previous books have focused on aspects of the party's identity the military question or its religious discourse here Joseph Daher presents an alternative perspective built upon political economy Drawing on extensive fieldwork in Lebanon and dozens of interviews as well as new archival and other primary sources Daher's analysis confidently positions Hezbollah within socio economic and political developments in Lebanon and the Middle East He emphasises Hezbollah's historic ties with its main sponsor the Islamic Republic of Iran its media and cultural wings and its relationship with Western economic policies Further chapters examine the party's policies towards workers struggles and women's issues and its orientation towards the sectarian Lebanese political system Hezbollah is a well informed and fresh analysis of a topic which remains central to our understanding of one of the world's most tumultuous and politically unstable regions The Iranian

Diaspora Mohsen Mostafavi Mobasher, 2018-10-03 The Iranian revolution of 1978-1979 uprooted and globally dispersed an enormous number of Iranians from all walks of life Bitter political relations between Iran and the West have since caused those immigrants to be stigmatized marginalized and politicized which in turn has discredited and distorted Iranian migrants social identity subjected them to various subtle and overt forms of prejudice discrimination and social injustice and pushed them to the edges of their host societies The Iranian Diaspora presents the first global overview of Iranian migrants experiences since the revolution highlighting the similarities and differences in their experiences of adjustment and integration in North America Europe Australia and the Middle East Written by leading scholars of the Iranian diaspora the original essays in this volume seek to understand and describe how Iranians in diaspora re define and maintain their ethno national identity and re construct and preserve Iranian culture They also explore the integration challenges the Iranian immigrants experience in a very negative context of reception Combining theory and case studies as well as a variety of methodological strategies and disciplinary perspectives the essays offer needed insights into some of the most urgent and consequential issues and problem areas of immigration studies including national ethnic and racial identity construction dual citizenship and dual nationality maintenance familial and religious transformation politics of citizenship integration ethnic and cultural maintenance in diaspora and the link between politics and the integration of immigrants particularly Muslim immigrants
