Out of the Present Crisis Terence T. Burton, 2012-05-21 Today organizations have achieved an overall failure rate above 80 percent with Lean Six Sigma. Lean Six Sigma and continuous improvement in general. This is certainly not due to a shortage of books, consultants, and other online resources about the methodologies and tools or the success stories of Toyota and others. However, it is due to a shortage of knowledge and practice about the most critical success factors of improvement: leadership, sustaining infrastructure, behavioral and cultural transformation, and now emerging technology. These factors produce 90 percent of the success with continuous and sustainable improvement; the methodologies and tools represent an irrelevant 10 percent. For decades, most organizations have focused on this quick and easy, irrelevant 10 percent through an
