Althoff paints a picture of an entrepreneurial system rife with bias and discrimination where women receive less than 3 percent of this country's venture capital struggle to find mentors in the wake of MeToo and are dismissed as mompreneurs. The effects of this unequal system—a weaker economy, fewer jobs, less innovation—are felt by all of us, and Althoff explains how more equitable structures in business and entrepreneurship will benefit all people, not just those hoping to fund a startup. By exploring some of the practical ways we can open the entrepreneurial system to everyone, Althoff provides a rallying cry and a way forward for women entrepreneurs and their allies, showing that change is urgent and within our reach.
