Art And Essay Contest 2014

Macelle Mahala

Art And Essay Contest 2014:

Poetry Diversified 2018 Winners 2016-2017 Poetry Lit Prize, 2019-09-02 Poetry Diversified 2018 showcases the compiled experiences of the 2016 2017 Poetry Matters Literary Prize Contest winners. The anthology is filled with language that bears the souls of forty poets with forty different stories to tell. The title says it all: these poets represent diversities in age, gender, religion, and every social category which their various experiences represent. Each poet will take readers through different emotional peaks and valleys from sorrow and guilt to discovery, hope, and joy. Poetry Diversified 2018 will suit the tastes of anyone who is stirred by emerging poetic voices. Philosophical Essays on Ugo Nespolo's Art and Cinema Daniela Angelucci, Davide Dal Sasso, 2019-04-03. An indefatigable experimenter with new creative possibilities. With his work, the Italian artist Ugo Nespolo (1941) has given shape to a poetics that stands out in the contemporary art scene by existing on the border between avant-garde and pop. He has experimented in almost every field of art in and out of different screens from paintings to installations and cinema. This book is a collection of philosophical essays that analyse Nespolo's poetics from different theoretical perspectives focused in particular on his artworks and films. The book consists of three sections. The first includes essays dedicated to Nespolo's works that fall within the visual arts. The second presents contributions that investigate his cinema and some of his films. The third section concludes the book with two interviews conducted at different stages of Nespolo's career which tackle some of the key themes of his poetics, offering a direct insight into his theoretical reflection. Black Theater, City Life Macelle Mahala, 2022-08-15. Macelle Mahala's rich study of contemporary African American theater institutions reveals how they reflect and shape the histories and cultural realities of their cities. Arguing that the community in which a play is staged is as important to the work's meaning as the script or set, Mahala focuses on four cities' arts ecologies to shed new light on the unique relationship between performance and place: Cleveland (home to the oldest continuously operating Black theater in the country), Pittsburgh (birthplace of the legendary playwright August Wilson), San Francisco (a metropolis currently experiencing displacement of its Black population), and Atlanta (a city with forty years of progressive Black leadership and reverse migration). Black Theater, City Life looks at Karamu House Theatre, the August Wilson African American Cultural Center, Pittsburgh Playwrights Theatre Company, the Lorraine Hansberry Theatre, the African American Shakespeare Company, the Atlanta Black Theatre Festival, and Kenny Leon's True Colors Theatre Company to demonstrate how each organization articulates the cultural specificities, sociopolitical realities, and histories of African Americans. These companies have faced challenges that mirror the larger racial and economic disparities in arts funding and social practice in America, while their achievements exemplify such institutions' vital role in enacting an artistic practice that reflects the cultural backgrounds of their local communities. Timely, significant, and deeply researched, this book spotlights the artistic and civic import of Black theaters in American cities. From Me to We Jason Griffith, 2016-08-19. With this practical book, you'll learn effective ways to engage students in reading and writing by teaching them narrative nonfiction. By engaging adolescents in narrative literary or creative nonfiction they can cultivate a greater understanding of themselves the world around them and what it means to feel empathy for others This book will guide you to first structure a reading unit around a narrative nonfiction text and then develop lessons and activities for students to craft their own personal essays Topics include Engaging your students in the reading of a nonfiction narrative with collaborative chapter notes empathy check ins and a mini research paper to deepen students understanding Helping your students identify meaningful life events recount their experiences creatively and construct effective opening and closing lines for their personal essays Encouraging your students to use dialogue outside research and a clear plot structure to make their narrative nonfiction more compelling and polished The strategies in this book are supplemented by examples of student work and snapshots from the author s own classroom The book also includes interviews with narrative nonfiction writers MK Asante and Johanna Bear The appendices offer additional tips for using narrative nonfiction in English class text and online resources for teaching narrative nonfiction and a correlation chart between the activities in this book and the Common Core Standards

miriam cooke,2016-10-04 On March 17 2011 many Syrians rose up against the authoritarian Asad regime that had ruled them with an iron fist for forty years Initial successes were quickly quashed and the revolution seemed to devolve into a civil war pitting the government against its citizens and extremist mercenaries As of late 2015 almost 300 000 Syrians have been killed and over half of a total population of 23 million forced out of their homes Nine million are internally displaced and over four million are wandering the world many on foot or in leaky boats Countless numbers have been disappeared These shocking statistics and the unstoppable violence notwithstanding the revolution goes on The story of the attempted crushing of the revolution is known Less well covered has been the role of artists and intellectuals in representing to the world and to their people the resilience of revolutionary resistance and defiance How is it possible that artists filmmakers and writers have not been cowed into numbed silence but are becoming more and more creative How can we make sense of their insistence that despite the apocalypse engulfing the country their revolution is ongoing and that their works participate in its persistence With smartphones pens voices and brushes these artists registered their determination to keep the idea of the revolution alive Dancing in Damascus traces the first four years of the Syrian revolution and the activists creative responses to physical and emotional violence

Latin American Digital Poetics

Scott Weintraub,Luis Correa-Díaz,2023-09-23 Latin American Digital Poetics seeks to take the pulse of emergent poetic forms whose history is entangled with the computational and its AI dreams and achievements This study carefully and thoroughly probes the intersection between the literary the cultural and the scientific technological in order to reflect on the ways that digital technology has radically reshaped and reconfigured nearly all aspects of contemporary culture The main idea of this book then is simple by way of panoramic approaches to digital poetry as well as select case studies we seek to account for the multi directional exchange between poetry technology and culture via a primarily pedagogical approach

Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture, 2021-04-15 This book proposes to examine French and Francophone intellectual history in the period leading to the decolonization of sub-Saharan Africa 1945-1960 The analysis favours the epistemological links between ethnology museology sociology and art history In this discussion a specific focus is placed on temporality and the role ascribed by these different disciplines to African pasts presents and futures It is argued here that the post-war context characterized inter alia by the creation of UNESCO the birth of Pr sence Africaine and the prevalence of existentialism bore witness to the development of new regimes of historicity and to the partial refutation of a progress-based modernity This investigation is predicated on case studies from West and Central Africa AOF AEF and Belgian Congo and whilst adopting a postcolonial methodology it explores African and French authors such as Georges Balandier Cheikh Anta Diop Frantz Fanon Chris Marker Joseph Ki Zerbo Claude Lévi Strauss Alain Resnais Jean-Paul Sartre and Placide Tempels This study explores the intellectual legacy of the long nineteenth century and the difficulty encountered by these authors to articulate their anti-colonial agenda away from the modern methodologies of the colonial library By focussing on issues of intellectual alienation this book also demonstrates that the post-WW2 period foreshadowed twenty-first century debates on extroversion racial inequalities the decolonization of history and cultural misappropriation The City in American
