country's beginning essayists in the United States have used their prose to articulate the many ways their individuality has been shaped by the politics, social life, and culture of this place. The Cambridge History of the American Essay offers the fullest account to date of this diverse and complex history. From Puritan writings to essays by Indigenous authors from Transcendentalist and Pragmatist texts to Harlem Renaissance essays from New Criticism to New Journalism, the story of the American essay is told here beginning in the early eighteenth century and ending with the vibrant heterogeneous scene of contemporary essayistic writing. The essay in the US has taken many forms: nature writing, travel writing, the genteel tradition, literary criticism, hybrid genres such as the essay film and the photo essay. Across genres and identities, this volume offers a stirring account of American essayism into the twenty-first century.

Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art; hence, art historical practices. From the perspective of artists, critics, and scholars engaged with this new medium, art was seen as too limiting a notion. Important issues were to re-think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations. Likewise, art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art. Yet as this book argues, video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts, ideologies, and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts. Video Art Historicized provides a novel, insightful, and also challenging re-interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises. It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material, examining the conceptual, theoretical, and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art. By engaging art history's most debated concepts, canon, art, and history, this study provides an in-depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art. Scrutinizing various narratives on video art, the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices. By focusing on the politics of this discourse, theoretical issues of gender, nationality, and particular themes in video art, Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history.

Essential Papers on Literature and Psychoanalysis Emanuel Berman, 1993

In a draft attached to a letter to his friend and confidante Wilhelm Fliess, May 31, 1897, Freud develops an idea: The mechanism of fiction is the same as that of hysterical fantasies. He supports this thought with a brief analysis of the biographical sources of Goethe's Werther. A few months later, on October 15, 1897, Freud mails Fliess a detailed account of remembered events from his childhood that Freud believed underlined the universality of Oedipus Rex and Hamlet. Freud's foray into literature initiated the beginning of a new critical approach. In Essential Papers on Literature and Psychoanalysis, Emanuel Berman presents classic and contemporary papers written at the intersection of literature and psychoanalysis. In bringing these essays together, Berman traces the development of a discipline that has often been plagued by a polarization between self confident single minded psychoanalysts reading literature as a series of case studies and literary loyalists who cling to manifest content or to the declared intentions of the authors accepting them at face value and depriving the work of its emotional complexity Berman covers the full range of old and new perspectives and presents selections from today s mature phase This collection includes papers by Sigmund Freud Steven Marcus Patrick J Mahoney Donald Spence Otto Rank Ernest Jones Ernst Kris Phyllis Greenacre Florence Bonime and Maryanne Eckardt David Werman Ellen Handler Spitz Jacques Lacan Shoshana Felman Norman N Holland Roy Schafer Meredith Anne Skura Gail S Reed Francis Baudry Rivka R Eifermann and Bennett Simon
