Art History Marilyn Stokstad 4th Edition:

Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology Amy Rebecca Gansell, Ann Shafer, 2020 This volume addresses and problematizes the formation and transformation of the ancient Near Eastern art historical and archaeological canon The canon is defined as an established list of objects monuments buildings and sites that are considered to be most representative of the ancient Near East In testing this canon this project takes stock of the current canon its origins endurance and prospects Boundaries and typologies are examined technologies of canon production are investigated and heritage perspectives on contemporary culture offer a key to the future

Stories of Art James Elkins, 2013-10-18 Stories of Art is James Elkins's intimate history of art Concise and original this engaging book is an antidote to the behemoth art history textbooks from which we were all taught As he demonstrates so persuasively there can never be one story of art Cultures have their own stories about themselves about other cultures and to hear them all is one way to hear the multiple stories that art tells But each of us also has our own story of art a kind of private art history made up of the pieces we have seen and loved or hated the effects they had on us and the connections that might be drawn among them Elkins opens up the questions that traditional art history usually avoids What about all the art not produced in Western Europe or in the Europeanized Americas Is it possible to include Asian art and Indian art in the story What happens when one does To help us find answers he uses both Western and non Western artworks tables of contents from art histories written in cultures outside the centre of Western European tradition and strangely wonderful diagrams of how artworks might connect through a single individual True multiculturalism may be an impossibility but art lovers can each create a story of art that is right for themselves

Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16 In the first book of its kind art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats print sources CD ROMS documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results The book is divided into three sections Basic Information Formats Types of Websites and How to Find Them and How to Use Web Information Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included

Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art historical styles artists working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education writing about art problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art This title will be periodically updated

The Folly of the Cross Richard Viladesau, 2018 The Folly of the Cross is the fourth book in Richard Viladesau's series examining the aesthetics and theology of the cross through Christian history Previous volumes have brought the story up through the Baroque era This new book examines the reception of the message of the cross from the European Enlightenment to the turn of the twentieth century The opening chapters set the stage in the transition from the Baroque to the Classical eras describing the changing intellectual and cultural paradigms of the time Viladesau examines the theology of the cross in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and the aesthetic mediation of the cross in music and the visual arts He shows how in the post Enlightenment era the aesthetic treatment of the cross widely replaced the dogmatic treatment and how this thought was translated into popular spirituality piety and devotion The Folly of the Cross shows how classical theology responded to the critiques of modern science history Biblical scholarship and philosophy and how both classical and modern theology served as the occasions for new forms of representation of Christ's passion in the arts and music

Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present

Feminisms is Still Our Name Malin Hedley Hayden, Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe, 2020-05-22 Feminisms have played a crucial part in art history and curatorial practices over the last forty years Hence it is by now imperative to scrutinize the history of feminist theories and methods within both fields Feminisms is Still Our Name is an anthology that critically debates the current status of feminisms in visual art and its relation to past art histories and possible feminist futures It brings together essays by leading scholars in order to meet the urgent need both for a critical historiography and for re-vitalizations of feminist practices within written as well as visual narratives of modern and contemporary art From a variety of perspectives the editors and contributors to this book initiate a much needed debate about possible strategies for a renewal of feminisms in art history and curating At the same time it demonstrates the necessity of further explorations and research into the diversity of feminist pasts Indeed this volume provides strong arguments that historiographical critique is an inevitable part of any future feminism's In providing fresh approaches to such important fields as feminist art history and feminist curating the essays assembled in Feminisms is Still Our Name will provoke fruitful discussion about the relation between academic and curatorial feminist practices Contributors Renee Baert Malin Hedley Hayden Lolita Jablonskiene Amelia Jones Mary Kelly Griselda Pollock and Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe

How to Write Art History Anne D'Alleva, 2010 An invaluable handbook How to Write Art History enables students to get the most from their art history course In a clear and engaging style Anne D'Alleva empowers readers to approach their coursework with confidence and energy The book introduces two basic art historical methods formal analysis and contextual analysis and
