When in their lives do great artists produce their greatest art Do they strive for creative perfection throughout decades of painstaking and frustrating experimentation or do they achieve it confidently and decisively through meticulous planning that yields masterpieces early in their lives By examining the careers not only of great painters but also of important sculptors poets novelists and movie directors Old Masters and Young Geniuses offers a profound new understanding of artistic creativity Using a wide range of evidence David Galenson demonstrates that there are two fundamentally different approaches to innovation and that each is associated with a distinct pattern of discovery over a lifetime Experimental innovators work by trial and error and arrive at their major contributions gradually late in life In contrast conceptual innovators make sudden breakthroughs by formulating new ideas usually at an early age Galenson shows why such artists as Michelangelo Rembrandt C zanne Jackson Pollock Virginia Woolf Robert Frost and Alfred Hitchcock were experimental old masters and why Vermeer van Gogh Picasso Herman Melville James Joyce Sylvia Plath and Orson Welles were conceptual young geniuses He also explains how this changes our understanding of art and its past Experimental innovators seek and conceptual innovators find By illuminating the differences between them this pioneering book provides vivid new insights into the mysterious processes of human creativity "The Concept of the 'Master' in Art Education in Britain and Ireland, 1770 to the Present " MatthewC. Potter, 2017-07-05 A novel investigation into art pedagogy and constructions of national identities in Britain and Ireland this collection explores the student master relationship in case studies ranging chronologically from 1770 to 2013 and geographically over the national art schools of England Ireland Scotland and Wales Essays explore the manner in which the Old Masters were deployed in education fuelled the individual creativity of art teachers and students were used as a rhetorical tool for promoting cultural projects in the core and periphery of the British Isles and united as well as divided opinions in response to changing expectations in discourse on art and education Case studies examined in this book include the sophisticated tradition of academic inquiry of establishment figures like Joshua Reynolds and Frederic Leighton as well as examples of radical reform undertaken by key individuals in the history of art education such as Edward Poynter and William Coldstream The role of Modern Masters like William Orpen Augustus John Gwen John and Jeff Wall is also discussed along with the need for students and teachers to master the realm of art theory in their studio based learning environments and the ultimate pedagogical repercussions of postmodern assaults on the academic bastions of the Old Masters The Schoolmasters Yearbook and Directory ,1912 Van Gogh on Demand Winnie Wong,2022-12-22 Unsettles contemporary art s unspoken hierarchies and topples modernist and postmodernist assumptions about originality authenticity and authorship caa Reviews In a metropolis in south China lies Dafen an urban village that houses thousands of workers who paint van Goghs Da Vincis Warhols and other Western masterpieces for the world market producing an astonishing five million paintings a year Winnie Wong infiltrated this world first investigating the work of conceptual artists then working as a dealer apprenticing as a painter surveying wholesalers and retailers in Europe East Asia and North America establishing relationships with local leaders and organizing a conceptual art exhibition for the Shanghai World Expo The result is Van Gogh on Demand a fascinating book about a little known aspect of the global art world one that sheds surprising light on the workings of art artists and individual genius Wong describes an art world in which migrant workers propaganda makers dealers and international artists make up a global supply chain of art She examines how Berlin based conceptual artist Christian Jankowski who collaborated with Dafen s painters to reimagine the Dafen Art Museum unwittingly appropriated the work of a Hong Kong based photographer Michael Wolf She recounts how Liu Ding a Beijing based conceptual artist asked Dafen assembly line painters to perform at the Guangzhou Triennial styling himself into a Dafen boss Through such cases Wong shows how Dafen s painters force us to reexamine our preconceptions about the role of Chinese workers in redefining global art A fantastically detailed exploration of a topic which touches the heart of many of the issues surrounding China s economic rise South China Morning Post
