Art Report Comments For Children:

Teaching the Primary Curriculum for Constructive Learning Michael Littledyke, Laura Huxford, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 There is a current preoccupation with educational standards with claims that overall standards of achievement have fallen The purpose of this book therefore is to address the question of how children learn across the primary National Curriculum subjects with implications for effective teaching approaches The book emphasises a constructivist view of learning which acknowledges that children have views and attitudes which are formed as a result of experiences in and out of school and that these must be taken into account if meaningful and transferable learning is to be achieved

Inspiring School Change Christine Hall, Pat Thomson, 2017-04-28 Recognising performance and accountability pressures on schools Inspiring School Change shows how a commitment to the arts in education can meet core school agendas of pupil and parent engagement attainment improved teaching and inclusion Schools are under pressure to develop their students creativity and to improve their cultural education This book fills a gap by marshalling the arguments and evidence for a form of education in through and with the arts that moves beyond individual projects to become central to teaching learning and school reform When the arts are taken seriously schools become different and better places Using research evidence to promote greater awareness of the capacity of the arts to promote educational change this text captures four key themes that run through all of the chapters Inspiration sharing experiences and the way they happened documenting inspiring pedagogy by understanding the reason it was done the factors and the people involved in making it work School change the need for schools to better prepare young people for the lives they will live in the twenty first century to engage young people more effectively and so educate them better and the recognition that in an unequal society schools can contribute to making things fairer Creative arts demonstrates through international research how the arts can facilitate whole school learning meet core agendas such as attainment inclusion and promote lifelong learning Transforming education marshals the arguments and evidence for a form of education in through and with the arts that moves beyond individual projects to become central to teaching learning and school reform Tackling the hot topics of parent and pupil engagement standards and accountability in a fresh way Inspiring School Change offers those engaged in the research and practice of improving teaching and learning with insight into the educational value and possibilities of arts based teaching and an arts rich curriculum

Resources in Education, 1994-07 Gender, Nutrition, and the Human Right to Adequate Food Anne C. Bellows, Flavio L.S. Valente, Stefanie Lemke, María Daniela Núñez Burbano de Lara, 2015-12-07 This book introduces the human right to adequate food and nutrition as evolving concept and identifies two structural disconnects fueling food insecurity for a billion people and disproportionately affecting women children and rural food producers the separation of women's rights from their right to adequate food and nutrition and the fragmented attention to food as commodity and the medicalization of nutritional health Three conditions arising from these disconnects are discussed structural violence and discrimination frustrating the realization of women's human rights as well as their private and public contributions to food and nutrition security for all many women s experience of their and their children s simultaneously independent and intertwined subjectivities during pregnancy and breastfeeding being poorly understood in human rights law and abused by poorly regulated food and nutrition industry marketing practices and the neoliberal economic system s interference both with the autonomy and self determination of women and their communities and with the strengthening of sustainable diets based on democratically governed local food systems The book calls for a social movement led reconceptualization of the right to adequate food toward incorporating gender women s rights and nutrition based on the food sovereignty framework
