Art Talk Eileen Potter Kopelman, 2005 North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21 This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations. It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination. Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women, the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice, including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences. To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses, this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists: the stand-up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid, the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat, and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz. Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research, the analysis is supplemented with semi-structured interviews with the artists. This book is suitable for scholars and students in Gender Studies, Media Studies, Cultural Studies, Sociology, and Politics.

Infrastructure and Form Karin Zitzewitz, 2022-09-06 In the 1990s and 2000s, contemporary art in India changed radically in form as an art world once dominated by painting began to support installation, new media, and performance. In response to the liberalization of India's economy, art was cultivated by a booming market as well as by new nonprofit institutions that combined strong local roots and transnational connections. The result was an unprecedented efflorescence of contemporary art and growth of a network of institutions radiating out from India. Among the first studies of contemporary South Asian art, Infrastructure and Form engages with sixteen of India's leading contemporary artists and art collectives to examine what made this development possible. Karin Zitzewitz articulates the connections among formal trajectories of medium and material, curatorial frames, and networks of circulation, and the changing conditions of everyday life after economic liberalization. By untangling the complex interactions of infrastructure and form, the book offers a discussion of the barriers and conduits that continue to shape global contemporary art and its relationship to capital more broadly.

Performance Artists Talking in the Eighties Linda M. Montano, 2023-09-01 Performance artist Linda Montano, curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work, invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex, food, money, fame, or death ritual resurfaced in their later work. The result is an original and compelling talking performance that documents the production of art in an important and often misunderstood community. Among the more than 100 artists Montano interviewed from 1979 to 1989 were John Cage, Suzanne Lacy, Faith Ringgold, Dick Higgins, Annie Sprinkle, Allan Kaprow, Meredith Monk, Eric Bogosian, Adrian Piper, Karen Finley, and Kim Jones. Her discussions with them focused on the relationship between art and life history.

and memory the individual and society and the potential for individual and social change The interviews highlight complex issues in performance art including the role of identity in performer audience relationships and art as an exploration of everyday conventions rather than a demonstration of virtuosity Performance artist Linda Montano curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex food money fame or death ritual resurfaced in their later work The The Creative Programmer Wouter Groeneveld,2023-05-30 The Creative Programmer applies stories examples and ground breaking research around the processes and habits of successful creative individuals helping you discover how you can build creativity into your programming practice This fascinating new book teaches practical techniques that apply those principles to software development The Colors of Learning Rosemary Althouse,Margaret H.
