Art And Politics In China 1949 1984:

Art and Politics in China, 1949-1984 Maria Galikowski,1998 This book examines the complex relationship between art and politics in the People s Republic of China between 1949 and 1984 It focuses in particular on three important facets of this relationship namely the organizational structure of China s art establishment the ideological framework for directing creative activity and the political movement as a key method for periodically ensuring that artists follow the current official line

Museum Representations of Maoist China Amy Jane Barnes,2016-04-15 The collection interpretation and display of art from the People s Republic of China and particularly the art of the Cultural Revolution have been problematic for museums These objects challenge our perception of Chineseness and their style content and the means of their production question accepted notions of how we perceive art This book links art history museology and visual culture studies to examine how museums have attempted to reveal discuss and resolve some of these issues Amy Jane Barnes addresses a series of related issues associated with collection and display how museums deal with difficult and controversial subjects the role they play in mediating between the object and the audience the role of the Other in the creation of Self and national identities the nature role and function of art in society the museum as image maker the impact of communism and Maoism on the cultural history of the twentieth century and the appropriation of communist visual iconography This book will be of interest to researchers and students of museology visual and cultural studies as well as scholars of Chinese and revolutionary art

Cultural China 2020 Séagh Kehoe, Gerda Wielander,2021-11-29 Cultural China is a unique annual publication for up to date informed and accessible commentary about Chinese and Sinophone languages cultural practices politics and production and their critical analysis It builds on the University of Westminster s Contemporary China Centre Blog providing additional reflective introductory pieces to contextualise each of the eight chapters The articles in this Review speak to the turbulent year that was 2020 as it unfolded across cultural China Thematically they range from celebrity culture fashion and beauty to religion and spirituality via language politics heritage and music Pieces on representations of China in Britain and the Westminster Chinese Visual Arts Project reflect our particular location and home Many of the articles in this book focus on the People s Republic of China but they also draw attention to the multiple Chinese and Sinophone cultural practices that exist within across and beyond national borders The Review is distinctive in its cultural studies based approach and contributes a much needed critical perspective from the Humanities to the study of cultural China It aims to promote interdisciplinary dialogue and debate about the social cultural political and historical dynamics that inform life in cultural China today offering academics activists practitioners and politicians a key reference with which to situate current events in and relating to cultural China in a wider context

The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang,2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China's economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China's modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China

Chinese Independent Animation Wenhai Zhou,2020-04-23 This study of independent animation opens up a quietly subversive and vibrant dimension of contemporary Chinese culture which hitherto has not received as much attention as dissident art or political activism Scholarly interest in Chinese animation has increased over the last decade with attention paid to the conventional media circle of production distribution and consumption The independent sector has been largely ignored however until now By focusing on distinctive independent artists like Pisan and Lei Lei and situating their work within the present day media ecology the author examines the relationship between the genre and the sociocultural transformation of contemporary China Animation the author argues has a special significance as the nature of the animation text is itself multilayered and given to multiple interpretations and avenues of engagement Through an examination of the affordances of this independent media entity the author explores how this multifaceted cultural form reveals ambiguities that parallel contradictions in art and society In so doing independent animation provides a convenient mirror for examining how recent social upheavals have been negotiated and how certain practitioners have found effective ways for discussing the post Socialist reality within the current political configuration

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Chinese Culture Edward Lawrence Davis,2005 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Museum Processes in China Chui-fun Selina Ho,2025-10-01 This book challenges the museum enterprise in China as a state monopoly and considers it as a new cultural agency that has emerged in the early twenty first century Following a constructive and multi perspectival approach it discusses the roles of political and cultural economic agents museum intermediaries and museum publics in the interlinked processes of regulation cultural production and consumption and the issues of identity and representation faced by the art museums in the Greater Pearl River Delta Region It broadly traces the art museum from its origin as a tool of nationalism and adoption as a vehicle of modernization in both nationalist and early communist periods until its role in the present as it reflects the contested and alternative representations diverse publics and fissured identities of the post economic reform period of China

Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) ,2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history
