Socially Engaged Art and Ethics Anthony Schrag, 2025-07-18 Bringing together artists curators activists academics managers and educators from around the world this unique anthology examines the notion of ethics within socially engaged art The volume aims to deepen conversations around what good or right activities could be in this developing and expanding practice and readers are invited to consider the contextual nature of socially engaged art its politics infrastructures and values Supported by case studies from the United Kingdom the United States China Cuba South Africa and Norway as well as discussions relating to education cultural policy and activism this volume provides a much needed critical analysis in the making curating commissioning and managing of socially engaged art This collection is an ideal text for interdisciplinary courses that place visual arts including design or performance within social and political contexts but also for students and scholars of art art history and visual studies more generally

Scholarship Students in Elite South African Schools

Jennifer Wallace, Jennifer Feldman, 2022-11-16 This book provides a narrative account of the experiences of twenty former scholarship students from historically disadvantaged communities who attended elite public and private secondary schools It draws on in depth one on one semi structured interviews conducted with former scholarship recipients who were between the ages of 19 and 24 years at the time of the interviews Various themes are explored specifically focusing on elite schooling in relation to the experiences and navigational practices of the scholarship recipients and the adjustments that they felt they needed to make in order to fit into the elite school space The book analyses and discusses the reflective experiences of students who were awarded a scholarship to attend an elite secondary school It reveals that accepting the gift of a scholarship is far more complex multi layered and at times harsh and even painful for the individual recipients than is possibly realized by those involved in this practice This book contributes to academic educational debates within the sociology of education elite schools and schooling in the post apartheid South African context

Faith, Class, and Labor

Jin Young Choi, Joerg Rieger, 2020-12-16 Despite the fact that 99 percent of us work for a living and although work shapes us to the core class and labor are topics that are underrepresented in the work of scholars of religion theology and the Bible With this volume an international group of scholars and activists from nine different countries is bringing issues of religion class and labor back into conversation Historians and theologians investigate how new images of God and the world emerge and what difference they can make Biblical critics develop new takes on ancient texts that lead to the reversal of readings that had been seemingly stable settled and taken for granted Activists and organizers identify neglected sources of power and energy returning in new force and point to transformations happening Asking how labor and religion mutually shape each other and how the agency of working people operates in their lives the contributors also employ intersectional approaches that engage race gender sexuality and colonialism This volume presents transdisciplinary transtextual transactional transnational and transgressive work in progress much needed in our time

The Critic in the World Amy

Lindeman Allen, Francisco Lozada, Yak-hwee Tan, 2024-11-01 A Pact of Love with Criticism A Pact of Blood with the World Building on the legacy of Fernando F Segovia the pioneering essays in this volume redefine the intersection of biblical studies and geopolitics Through a thorough exploration of how ancient texts and modern readers influence and reflect geopolitical dynamics each contributor reveals how biblical narratives have shaped and been shaped by historical power structures territorial conflicts and climate changes and cultural exchanges Essays employ contemporary geopolitical concepts that move beyond traditional readings to offer fresh insights into the strategic and ideological forces behind scriptural texts An annotated interview with Fernando F Segovia traces his immigration journey as an adolescent and its indelible imprint on his scholarship as a postcolonial critic Contributors include Efra n Agosto Amy Lindeman Allen Reimund Bieringer Mark G Brett Ahida Calder n Pilarski Greg Carey Jorge E Castillo Guerra Jin Young Choi Stephanie Buckhanon Crowder Gregory L Cu llar Musa W Dube Neil Elliott Eleazar S Fernandez Bridgett A Green Leticia A Guardiola S enz Jacqueline M Hidalgo Knut Holter Ma Maricel S Ibita Ma Marilou S Ibita John F Kutsko Sung Uk Lim Francisco Lozada Jr Luis Men ndez Antu a Rub n Mu oz Larrondo Robert Myles Wongi Park Mitri Raheb Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza Fernando F Segovia Yak hwee Tan Ekaputra Tupamahu Gerald O West Hans J H de Wit and H Daniel Zacharias Art, Aesthetics and International Justice Marina Aksenova, 2025-03-31 This book demonstrates that art is implicit in the process of administration of international justice The diverse nature of recent global threats as well as an overwhelming pull towards isolationism and nationalism challenge the dominant deterrence paradigm of international governance created in the aftermath of the Second World War An alternative model is to focus on cooperation and not deterrence as a guiding operational principle This volume focuses on the theoretical component linking justice with aesthetics as well as on the practical manifestation of such connection evident inter alia in the rhetoric of international courts their architectural design and their commemorative practices expressed by the practice of symbolic reparations adopted by some of the courts The underlying premise of the book is that international justice requires new vocabulary and new approaches which can be derived from the study of aesthetics It is held that exploring the aesthetical dimension of international justice contributes to the discussion on the foundations of its authority and the grounds for compliance with it The work engages deeply with the theory of aesthetics developed by Immanuel Kant and Abhinavagupta a Kashmiri critic philosopher and scholar writing in the early eleventh century The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of Legal Philosophy International Criminal Justice and International Law and International Relations The Humanities Reloaded Keyan G. Tomaselli, Pier Paolo Frassinelli, 2023-03-21 This volume examines the crisis of humanities narratives in the context of neoliberal capitalism and of the emergence and consolidation of the metrics driven corporate managerial university Do narratives of the crisis of the humanities mobilize specific notions of value and prestige How are these notions classed gendered and racialized How do narratives of the crisis of the humanities relate to current debates and contestations surrounding decolonization Does the crisis of a traditional configuration of the humanities open up opportunities to use their institutional space for work that is both socially and politically relevant and academically rigorous The aim is to provide a counter narrative of the present and future of the humanities In addition to the study of a multiplicity of media texts and other multimodal expressive forms formats and platforms and genres a communicative turn in the humanities entails deepening the study of the value chains in which they are inserted and their conditions of production circulation and reception Communicative and digital capitalism now labelled the Fourth Industrial Revolution is on its way to bringing its own waves of struggles and confrontations to our campuses and beyond to which humanities scholars and activists can make a vital contribution should some of us decide to do so This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of art literature media and cultural studies education politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies

The Justice of Visual Art Eliza Garnsey, 2020 Drawing on novel case studies this book provides the first substantive theoretical framework for understanding transitional justice and visual art Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius, 2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius University of Johannesburg

The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones, 2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways Going back to the earliest world s fairs in the nineteenth century this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists As world s fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures products and processes artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies From Gustave Courbet s rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World s Fair to curator Beryl Madra s choice of London based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm changing art and art history along the way Ultimately Caroline A Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition
