LeRoy Neiman Travis Vogan, 2024-10-08 The untold story of an American hustler who upset the art world and became a pop culture icon cutting a swath across twentieth century history and culture LeRoy Neiman the cigar smoking and mustachioed artist famous for his Playboy illustrations sports paintings and brash interviews stood among the twentieth century's most famous wealthy and polarizing artists His stylish renderings of musicians athletes and sporting events captivated fans but baffled critics who accused Neiman of debasing art with popular culture Neiman cashed in on the controversy and his extraordinary popularity challenged the norms of what art should be where it belongs and who should have access to it The story of a Depression era ragamuffin turned army chef turned celebrity artist Neiman's biography is a rollicking ride through twentieth century American history punctuated by encounters with the likes of Muhammad Ali Frank Sinatra Joe Namath and Andy Warhol In the whirlwind of his life Neiman himself once remarked that even he didn't know who he really was but he said the fame and money that came his way made it all worth it In this first biography of the captivating and infamous man Travis Vogan hunts for the real Neiman amid the America that made him American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse J. Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion He demonstrates that museums their contents and their manners of display are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles Country Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs In addition to these primarily art museums Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C S Peirce In so doing it demonstrates that museum buildings the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence Art of Florida Rodney Carlisle, Loretta Carlisle, 2021-10-01 A visual guide to approximately 20 Florida art colonies and districts The book will discusses in detail a variety of towns in Florida renowned as Art Colonies together with several Arts Districts in both small towns and larger cities that have been designated by the local government and or by developers as neighborhoods set aside to foster the arts Many of the communities sponsor annual art festivals or shows that have been held for more than 40 years The book features color photographs that capture the variety of art forms that are uniquely Florida and covers special aspects of art in Florida such as the great number of Florida artists the influence of arts projects and social realism of the New Deal mural painting in Florida the Highwaymen and the extremely rich 19th and 20th century history of Florida artists Colonies and districts include Bradenton Village of the Arts Eau Gallie Arts District St Petersburg Warehouse Arts District and Central Arts District Tampa and Tallahassee
