Art Talk Eileen Potter Kopelman, 2005 Eat This Book Study Guide Eugene H. Peterson, Peter Santucci, 2006-07-25

The second part of Peterson's momentous five volume work on spiritual theology Eat This Book challenges us to read the Scriptures on their own terms as God's revelation and to live them as we read them. With warmth and wisdom Peterson offers greatly needed down to earth counsel on spiritual reading through a fascinating conversation on the nature of language the ancient practice of lectio divina and the role of Scripture translations. What better way to continue that conversation than through an intensive study with other readers. This helpful study guide is designed to enable small groups in schools or churches or even individuals to delve deeper into the timely wisdom of Eat This Book. Peterson's discussion is here broken up into nine sessions each of which contains a summary quotations to consider questions for interaction and a suggested activity ending with a suggestion for prayer.

Working with case studies the book will introduce broad frameworks of understanding of issues such as growth loss and sexuality together with critical perspectives on important aspects of practice such as language power and boundaries. The book provides an accessible overview of key concepts in pastoral theology offering key entry points for further discussion and study. Each chapter includes discussion questions and or reflective exercises at the end of each chapter together with a short bibliography. Throughout the text key summaries of learning will be indicated by boxed Practice Points. Resources in Education, 1998

North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21. This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations. It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination. Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences. To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists the stand up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz. Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research the analysis is supplemented with semi
