Directors of the German Arbitration Institute DIS Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration offers a refreshingly candid and balanced discussion of sharp practices in international arbitration. The book collects a wealth of information on guerrilla tactics previously only available in separate survey reports, articles and guidelines on the topic. It additionally includes a chapter addressing tactics deployed in virtual or remote arbitrations due to the Covid 19 pandemic. The comprehensive research and analysis presented in this book make it a valuable resource to counsel parties, arbitrators, academics and those who deliver practical arbitration training. A must read for those who want to better understand the practices that may lead some to disfavor arbitration and ways the arbitration community can respond to guerrilla tactics to improve the arbitration process for all participants.

Dana MacGrath, Independent Arbitrator, MacGrath Arbitration. From an unreasoned fiat of a wise man who left both sides equally unhappy but resolved the disputes effectively, arbitration has evolved into a full scale trial before a party chosen tribunal. Its informality and expedition puts in peril the fundamental right of the recalcitrant to delay proceedings. Dr Ahuja has assiduously articulated the measures aptly christened Guerrilla Tactics used to disrupt and derail arbitrations. An indispensable read for the practitioner and an insightful treatise for the policy maker.

Harish Salve, SA, QC, Blackstone Chambers. This book shines a spotlight on arbitration's dark arts guerrilla tactics. Dr Ahuja illuminates this shadowy world with excellent and much needed scholarship that is practice based and useful for all stakeholders in arbitration. His examination of the root causes of this problem, recommendations on how to control it, comparisons with litigation practice and suggestions for future research marvellously combine to make this a work that is required to be consulted by all serious counsel, arbitrators, institutions and academics in the field of arbitration.
